

INSOL
INTERNATIONAL

GLOBAL INSOLVENCY
PRACTICE COURSE

CLASS OF 2023 /2024 BIOGRAPHIES

ANGELO CARELLA

Oliver Wyman
UAE

angelocarella81@gmail.com

Angelo is an Associate Partner with Oliver Wyman in Dubai. He has over 17 years of business experience, including C-level roles (CRO, CTO, CFO) dealing with crisis management, business stabilization, restructuring, as well as performance improvement.

Before joining Oliver Wyman, Angelo served as a Senior Director in Alvarez and Marsal, where he was part of the Turnaround and Restructuring team, and at Strategy&. Prior to moving to consulting, Angelo worked at ENI, an integrated energy company, where he assumed multiple managerial responsibilities, including Office of Exploration and Production Division COO, as well as Planning & Control Director of the Iranian company's branch.

Angelo is a graduate of GMP (General Management Program) from Harvard Business School and holds a MSc cum laude in Business Administration from the University of Bologna. Angelo is also a Chartered Accountant.

WEI MENG CHAN

Drew & Napier LLC

Singapore

weimeng.chan@drewnapier.com

Wei Meng's practice is focused on corporate and individual insolvency and restructuring work. His other areas of practice include investigations, involving fraud, accounting irregularities, securities trading and market manipulation, as well as commercial litigation work, handling contentious commercial, shareholder, employment and other disputes.

He has been involved in some of the largest restructurings in Asia and has more than 18 years' experience in matters of corporate insolvency, schemes of arrangements and compromise, judicial management, liquidation and cross-border restructuring exercises. He has advised liquidators and judicial managers on a variety of matters resulting from the liquidation and judicial management of companies, and has been involved with daily operational, management and creditor issues.

Wei Meng has been recognised in Chambers Asia Pacific, Asia Pacific Legal 500, IFLR1000, Who's Who Legal, Best Lawyers and Global Investigations Review 100 for his restructuring/insolvency and investigation work.

As a Partner with Baker & Partners in the Cayman Islands, Adam Crane focuses on complex and cross-border insolvency & restructuring, asset recovery, and commercial litigation matters.

Recognized by Who's Who Legal as a Global Leader in Restructuring and Insolvency and in Asset Recovery for 2023, and by INSOL International in the Young Practitioner Spotlight - Future 40 in 2022, Adam is experienced in proceedings involving collapsed or distressed hedge funds and private equity funds, cryptocurrency exchanges and other digital asset enterprises, shareholder and other corporate disputes, and white-collar/civil fraud.

His recent experience includes:

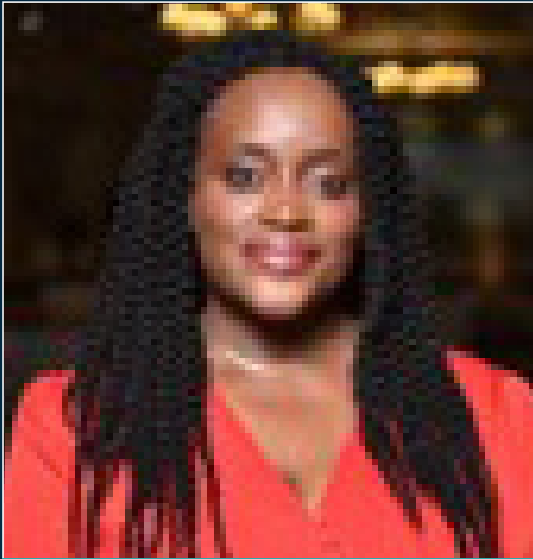

- Acting in the asset recovery efforts related to the multi-billion-dollar Malaysian 1MDB fraud scandal, called "the world's biggest financial scandal" by The Guardian and the "largest kleptocracy case to date" by the United States Department of Justice in 2016;
- Acting for the liquidators of Cayman Islands funds formed by Bahraini Awal Bank BSC in liquidation proceedings and litigation involving the defense of a US$9.2 billion claim (AHAB v Saad);
- Acting for the Hong Kong appointed Interim Receivers of a multi-billion-dollar private equity fund, including acting in complex litigation proceedings; and
- Acting for creditors who successfully obtained the appointment of provisional liquidators over the collapsed AAX cryptocurrency exchange and the subsequent appointment of official liquidators.

In 2020, Adam was inducted into the prestigious International Insolvency Institute - NextGen Leadership Program as a future leader in international insolvency and serves as Chair of the Executive Committee. In 2023, he was appointed as a Co-Chair of the American Bankruptcy Institute's International Committee and Co-Chair of the International Insolvency Institute's Regional Committee for the United States, Canada and the Caribbean.

ADAM CRANE

Baker & Partners
Cayman Islands
adamcrane@
bakerandpartners.com

CHIPO GAOBATWE

Administration of Justice
Botswana
chipo@gaobatwe.co.bw

Chipo is a Judicial Officer working in the High Courts of Botswana as a Deputy Registrar & Master, managing complex Insolvencies since 2013, some of which have involved cross-border elements after holding inquiries & interrogations. Chip has set judicial precedence on the role of the Master in regulating liquidator's fees. Before joining the Administration of Justice as a Registrar & Master Chipo practised law for 12 years gaining exposure in Civil, Criminal and Commercial litigation.

Chipo has a Bachelor of Laws degree from the University of Botswana, A Diploma in Insolvency Law from the University of Pretoria (South Africa). Chipo has completed the Foundation Certificate in International Insolvency Law (Insol Int).

Chipo is a member of SARIPA (South African Restructuring & Insolvency Practitioners Association) as well as INSOL International where she currently sitting as a member of the Legislative & Regulatory Colloquium.

ILONA GROARK

Kobre & Kim
Cayman Islands
ilona.groark@kobrekim.com

Ilona has over 15 years' experience assisting clients, first as a solicitor-advocate in England and more recently as an attorney in the Cayman Islands. She is a board member of RISA, the Cayman Islands chapter of INSOL.

Ilona advises clients in complex, ultra-high value cross-border disputes typically with a Caribbean nexus and invariably in circumstances where there are allegations of fraud or misconduct and a need to safeguard or recover assets across multiple-jurisdictions. Her recent experience in the insolvency space includes:

- Successfully preventing Ch 15 recognition of Cayman provisional liquidators of a solvent company
- Protecting investments in Cayman funds for Royalty and other UHNWIs
- Assisting liquidators of a Bermudan investment fund caught up in the Brockman tax scandal
- Pursuing joint & equitable winding up petitions to protect minority fund interests
- Using insolvency tools available in the Bahamas and the BVI to assist with arbitration award enforcement
- Seeking to intervene in joint & equitable winding up petitions as a third party
- Assisting bondholders to make recoveries when offshore note issuers default on their payment obligations

JOOST DEN HOLLANDER-ARNTZ

Houthoff

The Netherlands

j.den.hollander@houthoff.com

Joost specialises in insolvencies and restructurings. He has a particular interest in high complexity cases at the interface between insolvency law, civil law and financial regulatory law. Joost has a wide-ranging insolvency practice advising banks, pension funds and insurers. He was closely involved in the consulting process of the Dutch Recovery and Resolution (Insurers) Act (Wet herstel en afwikkeling van verzekeraars). He advised DSB NV in drafting and implementing a moratorium agreement for the distribution of DSB's remaining assets (EUR 650 million) and the Derivatives Committee in creating the Uniform Interest Rate Derivatives Recovery Framework (Uniform Herselkader Rentederivanten)

Joost is a member of the Dutch Association of Insolvency Practitioners (INSOLAD), the Netherlands Association for Comparative and International Insolvency Law (NVRII) and the Dutch Restructuring Association (NVvH).

In 2018 and 2019, Joost worked as the deputy company secretary at Heineken NV for 14 months.

THORBEN LANGHINRICHS

BRL BOEGE ROHDE
LUEBBEHUESEN

Germany

Thorben.Langhinrichs@BRL.de

VITA

Since 2018 BRL BOEGE ROHDE LUEBBEHUESEN,
Hamburg

2018 Lecturer in Insolvency Law at the University of Münster

2015 - 2018 Brinkmann & Partner, Hamburg

2013 - 2015 Legal clerkship at the Higher
Regional Court of Schleswig

CONSULTING FOCUS

- Insolvency law
- Corporate law
- Mergers & Acquisitions during crises and insolvency

ANNA LIN

Conyers Dill & Pearman
Hong Kong
anna.lin@conyers.com

Anna Lin is a highly accomplished litigation partner, renowned for her exceptional work and expertise in the field of dispute resolution and insolvency restructuring. With her extensive experience and deep understanding of complex legal matters, she brings a wealth of knowledge and leadership to her role. As a partner in the litigation and insolvency restructuring group, one of her key roles is providing strategic guidance and counsel to clients facing insolvency or restructuring challenges. She leverages her expertise to assess the financial and legal implications of such situations, developing tailored solutions that align with clients' objectives while navigating intricate legal frameworks.

Anna is known for her exceptional negotiation skills, which she utilizes to represent clients in both contentious and non-contentious matters. She adeptly handles disputes arising from insolvency and restructuring cases, striving to secure favourable outcomes for her clients through alternative dispute resolution methods or litigation when necessary. Her meticulous attention to detail and comprehensive understanding of insolvency laws enables her to provide precise and effective legal advice to clients.

In addition, Anna is highly regarded as a mentor within the firm, sharing her knowledge and experience with junior lawyers and guiding them in their professional development. She also contributes to thought leadership in the field by publishing articles, delivering presentations, and participating in industry conferences and seminars. Anna was recognised in the 2023 edition of The Legal 500 Asia-Pacific as Next Generation Partner. She was also recognised as "Top 15 Offshore Litigator 2022" by Asian Legal Business Magazine (and 2021).

INSOL
INTERNATIONAL

GLOBAL INSOLVENCY
PRACTICE COURSE

Mr. Ian Lo is a Managing Partner and the Head of Litigation and Dispute Resolution Department of Ince & Co. His principal areas of practice include (1) contentious insolvency, (2) corporate restructuring, (3) receivership, (4) bankruptcy, and (5) regulatory compliance.

Ian specialises in cross-border restructuring and insolvency related matters. In particular, he regularly advises high net worth individuals, international conglomerates, listed companies, institutional investors, bankers, and professional insolvency practitioners across a wide range of contentious and non-contentious works.

Throughout his 20 years practice in the legal industry, Ian has accumulated extensive experience in advising different parties at various stages of winding up proceedings, including but not limited to acting for petitioning creditors and institutional investors in seeking compulsory winding up orders and appointment of provisional liquidators, for debtor companies in defending winding up petitions, for liquidators in assets tracing and recovery actions as well as for former management or senior personnel against liquidators' claims.

Further, Ian also has abundant experience in non-contentious restructuring works, such as preparing scheme documents, restructuring support deeds and standstill agreements, collaborating with overseas and offshore counsel and financial advisors, as well as applying for sanction of schemes of arrangement in cross-border restructuring projects.

In addition, Ian is a member of The Hong Kong Institute of Directors, Federation of Hong Kong Industries, and The Hong Kong Chinese Importers' & Exporters' Association, etc., and he is appointed as the Legal Consultant of Hong Kong Sea School.

CHI WAI IAN LO

Ince & Co
Hong Kong
chanelli@incehk.com

LAUREN MACKSOUD

Dentons US LLP
USA

lauren.macksoud@dentons.com

Lauren is a partner in the Restructuring, Insolvency and Bankruptcy practice group at Dentons. Lauren focuses her practice on bankruptcy and insolvency matters and works with all types of businesses. She has a broad range of experience in representing debtors, secured parties and unsecured creditors. Lauren's experience in and out of the courtroom gives her an upper hand when it comes to maximizing recoveries and minimizing risks for clients in and out of bankruptcy. In addition to her work on restructuring matters, Lauren also advises financial institutions on the structuring of financing transactions such as real estate financings, securitizations, repurchase agreements, secured lending arrangements, and other derivative agreements, with a focus on insolvency risks, enforcement rights and remedies. Lauren serves as a member of the capital markets opinion committee for bankruptcy matters. Lauren also has experience representing lenders in various types of energy-efficiency project finance transactions including PACE transactions. Lauren served as a law clerk to the Honorable Novalyn L. Winfield, United States Bankruptcy Judge for the District of New Jersey. She is a graduate of Rutgers School of Law and Boston University.

PETER MADDEN

Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP
Singapore
prmadden@gibsondunn.com

Peter is a restructuring lawyer based in the Singapore office of Gibson, Dunn and Crutcher.

Before joining Gibson, Dunn and Crutcher, Peter worked in London (Kirkland & Ellis and Norton Rose Fulbright) and Sydney (Gilbert & Tobin). Peter is a dual-qualified solicitor, admitted to practice in England & Wales and Australia and was admitted as a solicitor in 2016 and before that was a trainee solicitor in London from 2014-2016.

The substantive focus of my practice is restructuring. In particular, advising creditors, debtors, directors and strategic investors on a range of transactions including restructurings and workouts, enforcement and insolvency proceedings, distressed debt investing, special situation financing and insolvency-related litigation.

Having worked in London and Sydney previously, Peter has developed strong experience in complex cross-border restructurings and insolvencies. Since joining Gibson, Dunn and Crutcher, I have continued to work on cross-border restructuring matters, with a particular focus on South East Asia.

In addition to my restructuring focus, I have significant experience in banking and finance transactions, with a particular focus on distressed debt financings, debt rescheduling and new financings for debtors going through restructuring processes.

JAMES MALTIN
RIM (BVI) Limited
British Virgin Islands
james@rim-bvi.com

James has been managing capital for more than 20 years. He began his City career at HSBC Investment Bank, then spent a decade at Rathbones before establishing Ridgeway Investment Management in 2017 and more recently RIM BVI. James is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute for Securities and Investment and holds their Diploma in Investment Management. He also has a bachelor's degree in Philosophy and Theology from the University of Durham, a Masters degree in Finance from the London Business School, and is a graduate of the Value Investing program at Columbia Business School.

Prior to establishing RIM BVI, he cycled 6,500 miles around Europe, being one of four cyclists to ride the Giro d'Italia, Tour de France and Vuelta a Espana in the same year, raising funds to support the blood cancer charity Cure Leukaemia, of which he is a patron. In a personal capacity, James is a Director of the Syncona Foundation and the DIDACT Foundation, both of which strive to cure cancer, and sits on the investment committee of the Institute of Cancer Research.

NINA MOCHEVA

World Bank

nmocheva@worldbank.org

Nina is a Senior Financial Sector Specialist with the Debt Resolution & Insolvency team of the WBG and is based in Washington DC. Nina is a dual-trained lawyer in civil and common law jurisdictions and focuses on assisting World Bank member countries in improving their insolvency and debt resolution regimes, as well as with implementing alternative dispute resolution (ADR) mechanisms, such as commercial arbitration and commercial mediation (private and court-connected). Nina was involved in the recent insolvency and debt resolution legislative reforms in Bulgaria, Armenia, Vietnam, Lao PDR, Egypt, and Liberia, among others. She is particularly interested in the use of alternative dispute resolution in insolvency and debt enforcement processes and has published extensively on these topics.

Prior to joining the World Bank Group, Nina worked in the field of international arbitration and litigation with a major law firm in Washington DC, where she advised sovereign states and private parties on international dispute resolution relating to foreign investment. She is a CEDR and Breakthrough ADR accredited mediator and has delivered numerous workshops on commercial mediation for practitioners and policy makers. Nina is a member of the International Insolvency Institute. She holds a LL.M. degree in International Legal Studies from Georgetown University Law School as a Fulbright scholar, and a master's in law degree from Sofia University, Bulgaria. She speaks English, Spanish, Bulgarian, and has a working knowledge of Russian.

MATHEW NEWMAN

Ogier

Guernsey

mathew.newman@ogier.com

Mathew leads Ogier's Dispute Resolution team in Guernsey, and is also global head of the firm's multi-disciplinary Restructuring and Corporate Recovery practice. His practice encompasses commercial and financial dispute resolution, with a special focus on contentious insolvency and restructuring and regulatory matters, schemes of arrangement, shareholder disputes and matters involving investment schemes. Mathew also has considerable experience in relation to more general commercial disputes involving financial services businesses, Guernsey trusts and large scale construction claims.

INSOL
INTERNATIONAL

GLOBAL INSOLVENCY
PRACTICE COURSE

EDDEE NG

Tan Kok Quan Partnership
Singapore
eddeeng@tkqp.com.sg

Described by The Legal 500 Asia Pacific as “impressive and clearly knows his way around the Singapore courts”, Eddee has been engaged in some of the most significant cross-border insolvency and restructuring matters in Singapore, notably the widely reported restructuring of Hyflux Ltd. Additionally, Eddee is a seasoned disputes practitioner who has acted for international clientele in a wide spectrum of corporate and commercial litigation cases.

INSOL
INTERNATIONAL

GLOBAL INSOLVENCY
PRACTICE COURSE

JAMES NOBLE

Carey Olsen

Singapore

James.noble@careyolsen.com

James Noble is Carey Olsen's Asia Head of the Litigation, Insolvency and Restructuring team and is renowned for his expertise in complex and high-value shareholder disputes, asset recovery, cross-border enforcement, and insolvency matters.

With over 20 years of experience, his exceptional skill set has been recognized globally, and he holds the unique distinction of being the only Cayman and BVI admitted litigator (and Bermuda registered) in Singapore.

Based in Carey Olsen's Tier 1 ranked (Legal 500) Singapore office, James leads the largest and most diverse offshore litigation team in the jurisdiction. His expert guidance has been sought in numerous high-profile cases, particularly those involving listed companies, and he possesses specialized expertise in appellate matters before the Court of Appeal and the Privy Council.

James is frequently recognised as one of the outstanding offshore litigators in Asia by market leading legal directories and publications. In particular, he is ranked consistently by Chambers Asia and is listed as a Leading Individual for the Offshore category in Singapore in The Legal 500 Asia 2023 Guide. He has also been named in the Asian Legal Business (ALB) Offshore Client Choice List and as one of the Top 15 Offshore Litigators in Asia in 2021, 2022 and 2023. In addition, James was recognised in the Top 50 Offshore Lawyers 2022 by Asia Business Law Journal (ABLJ) as part of the publication's prestigious annual A-List series. James is also named as an expert in asset recovery by Who's Who Legal in its latest Southeast Asia guide.

James is actively engaged in professional associations, being a member of INSOL and of the International Women's Insolvency & Restructuring Confederation (IWIRC), and was one of the first offshore law practitioners approved as a member of the Insolvency Practitioners Association of Singapore (IPAS). James is also a co-author of a textbook published.

SAURAV PANDA

Shardul Amarchand Mangaldas
& Co India
pandasaurav@gmail.com

Saurav Panda is a Partner in Shardul Amarchand Mangaldas & Co, one of India's leading law firms, with specialization in Insolvency & Bankruptcy, Debt Restructuring, Banking & Finance and strategic advisory on lender rights enforcement. Before joining Shardul Amarchand Mangaldas & Co in 2015, he was a Group Head in the Corporate Legal Group of ICICI Bank handling structured finance and resolution of stressed assets for North India.

He has about 14 years of experience in representing banks and financial institutions, strategic and financial investors and borrowers in insolvency resolution processes, debt restructuring and financing matters. Saurav has been instrumental in advising several resolution professionals, liquidators, committee of creditors and resolution applicants and has extensive experience in advising different categories of stakeholders in insolvency resolution processes.

WILL PATERSON

World Bank

wpaterson1@worldbank.org

Will Paterson is a Senior Financial Sector Specialist with the Insolvency and Debt Resolution Team of the World Bank. Will has assisted over 30 countries in strengthening their insolvency frameworks and has published in the areas of insolvency, corporate restructuring and fintech. Will is also on the organizing committee of the INSOL/World Bank Africa Round Table on Insolvency Reform. Prior to joining the World Bank, Will was Principal Legal Counsel at the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development. He has also worked as a Senior Economist with the Canadian Department of Finance and as the legal and policy advisor to two Presidents of the United Nations International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda based in Tanzania.

He began his career as an Associate at Clifford Chance LLP in London where he worked in the Capital Markets and Insolvency groups. Will holds a combined Bachelor of Laws and Bachelor of Civil Law from McGill University, an MSc in Public Policy and Public Administration from the London School of Economics and an Honours BA in International Studies (Economics) from Glendon College, York University. He was called to the bar in Ontario, Canada and is a qualified solicitor in England & Wales (not practicing).

AMY PATTERSON

Taylor Wessing LLP

UK

a.patterson@taylorwessing.com

Amy Patterson is a partner in the London restructuring and insolvency team at Taylor Wessing.

Amy works with clients on both contentious and non-contentious insolvency issues and corporate restructuring. She advises lenders, corporates, directors, private equity funds and insolvency practitioners in all areas of domestic and cross border insolvency law.

Amy's recent mandates include:

- Advising Trinity Investments DAC (a consortium comprising Attestor, Ellandi and Octane Capital) on its loan management and workout strategy following its acquisition of the £400m distressed loan portfolio from NatWest secured against shopping centres across the UK
- Advising US private investment firm on the contentious enforcement of secured debt facility in respect of group of companies in the healthcare sector, including defending injunctions to restrain enforcement, claims against security agent and ultimate debt sale
- Advising a listed investment trust on the company voluntary arrangement and subsequent consensual exit from a distressed portfolio group in the leisure space to its secured lenders

Amy sits on the Steering Committee of the London IWIRC Network and the insolvency sub-committee of the Law Society.

INSOL
INTERNATIONAL

GLOBAL INSOLVENCY
PRACTICE COURSE

CASSANDRA RONALDSON

Interpath Advisory

Cayman Islands

Cassandra.ronaldson@
interpathadvisory.com

I am a qualified accountant and insolvency practitioner with 12 years of experience in the Cayman Islands and Australia. As a Director at Interpath, my expertise lies in corporate insolvency and advisory appointments. I have successfully led and managed teams across multiple engagements, including complex cross-border matters in regions such as Asia, the US, and the Caribbean. One of my recent achievements involved overseeing the successful restructuring of a high-frequency trading firm that primarily focused on digital assets. The company faced significant liquidity issues following the collapse of FTX. Presently, I serve as a board member of the Cayman Islands chapter of RISA (Recovery and Insolvency Specialists Association).

JAUFRE ROUANET

JRC Corporate Consulting
UAE

jaufrerouanet@gmail.com

Jaufre brings a decade of extensive experience in Corporate Finance gained with PwC, spanning Europe, the USA, and Monaco, along with 15-year history of serving as a CFO and CRO (Chief Restructuring Officer) in both European and Middle-Eastern markets. His expertise lies in elevating the finance function to serve to Boards of Directors and entrepreneurs, with a focus on corporate finance, debt restructuring, and project implementation.

As the Founding Partner of JRC Corporate Consulting (www.jr3c.com), Jaufre leads with a passion for transforming challenges into effective solutions deployed throughout the organization. The JRC team is dedicated to uncovering and enhancing the intrinsic value of businesses through business structuring, capital or debt raising initiatives, and performance enhancement strategies, as well as optimizing capital structures to achieve optimal outcomes. Jaufre holds a Msc. in International Finance, he is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Management Accounting (FCMA, CGMA) and INSEAD Alumnus.

OMAR SALAH

Norton Rose Fulbright
The Netherlands

omar.salah@

nortonrosefulbright.com

Omar Salah is a restructuring and insolvency lawyer based in Amsterdam and London, serving a global client base. He is specialised in finance, restructuring and insolvency.

Omar has extensive experience in advising Dutch and international clients, including banks and other creditors, corporates, government bodies, sponsors, investors and other stakeholders on a range of financial restructuring and insolvency cases, including bank and bond debt restructurings, distressed M&A transactions and trading in non-performing loans. He has been involved in some of the most complex cross-border insolvencies globally, including Dutch WHOA proceedings, Dutch suspension of payments, UK scheme of arrangements and US Chapter 15 proceedings. In addition, Omar has advised various financial institutions in emergency regulations as well as recovery and resolution proceedings.

His practice also covers banking and finance mandates. He has advised on numerous leveraged and acquisition financings, asset-based financings, real estate financings, Islamic finance and investment grade corporate loans. In addition to his practice, he is a full professor (gewoon hoogleraar) at Tilburg University where he holds a Chair in Global Finance and Restructuring Law.

Before joining Norton Rose Fulbright, Omar worked for a leading Dutch law firm and an international US law firm in Amsterdam, Singapore and London.

NIGEL TRAYERS

Grant Thornton Recovery &
Reorganisation Ltd
Hong Kong
nigel.trayers@hk.gt.com

Nigel is a Managing Director in Grant Thornton Hong Kong's Recovery and Reorganisation practice with over 15 years' experience in corporate finance and restructuring in Europe, Australia and Asia. He has been based in Hong Kong for over 8 years.

Nigel trained as an accountant in Ireland before moving to Australia where he worked on a wide range of insolvency appointments, including Voluntary Administrations, Liquidations and Receiverships and he has significant experience in the trading on and sale of distressed businesses in the contracting and mining sector.

Nigel relocated to Hong Kong in January 2015 and since then has worked on a variety of matters with a particular focus on cross border restructuring and insolvency. Nigel takes appointments as a Liquidator, Receiver and Bankruptcy Trustee as well as advising banks and other lenders on distressed debt investments.

JONATHON TURNER

Lander & Rogers

Australia

jturner@landers.com.au

Jonathon is a restructuring and insolvency partner at Lander & Rogers and leads the commercial disputes team in Sydney. Jonathon specialises in and has significant experience in complex and contentious restructuring, insolvency, enforcement and commercial disputes. He is a trusted advisor to a range of domestic and international clients including leading financial institutions, insolvency practitioners, corporates and directors on both contentious and non-contentious matters.

Jonathon is dual-qualified having been admitted as a solicitor in Australia and England and Wales. During his time in London, Jonathon worked on a number of complex and high profile matters arising from the global financial crisis. He has acted in superior courts in England and Wales, Australia and the Cayman Islands.

OWEN WALKER

R&H Restructuring (Cayman) Ltd
Cayman Islands
owalker@rhrestructuring.com

Owen is a Director and Insolvency Practitioner at R&H Restructuring (Cayman) Ltd. He is a Chartered Accountant and fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of England and Wales.

Owen has been working within corporate restructuring and insolvency for fifteen years. He has specialised in offshore cross boarder insolvency and restructuring since 2016 and has been an appointment taking Insolvency Practitioner in both the British Virgin Islands and more recently the Cayman Islands.

He has a proven track-record in successfully delivering and managing a range of restructuring assignments including complex multi jurisdiction administrations and liquidations, receivership appointments, asset tracing and forensic accounting, independent business reviews, stakeholder management, financial restructuring, distressed M&A and exit/contingency planning.

Owen is a member of RISA, the Cayman chapter of INSOL. In addition, he is a member of the American Bankruptcy Institute

INSOL
INTERNATIONAL

GLOBAL INSOLVENCY
PRACTICE COURSE

H LANCE WILLIAMS

McCarthy Tetrault LLP
Canada
lwilliams@mccarthy.ca

Lance is a partner and the British Columbia-region lead of the bankruptcy and restructuring group with McCarthy Tetrault LLP, one of Canada's largest law firms. He provides clients with creative advice on complex insolvency and corporate finance matters, as well as innovative solutions to intricate restructuring issues. He possesses expertise in debt restructuring, corporate reorganizations, plans of arrangement, loan workouts, fraudulent preference actions, foreclosures, bankruptcies, and receiverships. He frequently guides companies and stakeholders through proceedings under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act and the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act, acting for trustees, debtors, directors and creditors. Lance advises on numerous cross-border and multi-jurisdictional mandates.

With experience in a diverse range of industries, Lance has advised clients operating in the technology, mining, cannabis, real estate and forestry sectors, among others.

Lance also provides strategic advice in corporate and commercial finance, advising borrowers and lenders on domestic and multi-jurisdictional loans. Clients have included borrowers, private lenders, financial institutions, mezzanine lenders and distressed lenders on asset-backed loans, real estate financing, acquisition financing, debtor-in-possession (DIP) financing and syndicated loans.

Lance holds a Bachelor of Commerce from the University of Alberta, a Juris Doctor from the University of Saskatchewan, and a Master of Laws from Osgoode Hall, York University. He is called to the bars of British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Yukon. He is a member of the Insolvency Institute of Canada, INSOL, and the International Insolvency Institute.

WERN-JHIE YAM

Setia Law LLC
Singapore
wernjhien@gmail.com

Wern-Jhien is a Director at Setia Law LLC, a boutique firm in Singapore that focuses on fraud litigation and contentious insolvency mandates. He has spent more than a decade developing a disputes and advocacy practice that is focused on contentious insolvency, fraud, and asset recovery.

Prior to Setia, Wern-Jhien spent close to 15 years in Rajah & Tann Singapore, one of the largest full-service firm in Singapore, where he rose to the rank of partner in the firm's Fraud, Asset Recovery, and Investigations practice group.