Dear Kevin,

Please call me David.

Thanks for your e-mail. I am well thanks, I hope you are too.

To answer your question, I am pretty sure that the Course Brochure clearly states that an IELTS or TOEFL certificate in English proficiency is only required if we ask for it. From your e-mail I can see your English is fine, so please submit your application. To be clear, you do not need to submit a certificate of English proficiency.

We look forward to receiving your application.

Best wishes,
David

Subject: Foundation Certificate

Hi Mr. Burdette,

I hope this email finds you well. My name is Kevin Mailloux and I am currently applying for the Foundation Certificate.

I am writing to inquire if it would be possible to avoid having to complete IELTS or TOEFL Certificate – a requirement that appeared at step 8 of 10 of my application. For your information, I have completed University degrees in both English and French and also work on a daily basis (including pleading in Court) in both of English and French. I believe my English Proficiency level, although French is my mother tongue, is sufficient in order to undertake and complete the Foundation Certificate with success.

I sincerely believe I am not asking for a “special permission”, but rather a recognition of my current English Proficiency level. If you would like to reach out to me in order to further discuss the above, I am available on my cellphone at 514-942-2591 at your convenience (although away with the family for the week!).

Thank you very much for your time and I look forward to begin the Foundation Certificate in September.

Regards,

Kevin Mailloux
