

Nubia Lopes Bufarah

Office: São Paulo

E-mail: nbufarah@tozzinifreire.com.br

Professional Experience

Over the last nine years working with corporate law, she has defended several clients in highly complex arbitration and judicial proceedings, in addition to defending the interests of domestic and foreign creditors in judicial recoveries and bankruptcy proceedings, with emphasis on the recoveries of groups Diplomata, Ecovix, BrPharma, Voges, Laginha, Renuka, OSX, BVA and, more recently, Oi, OGX, Enfil, Colombo, Liq Corp, Packseven and Odebrecht. As a member of TozziniFreire's Restructuring and Insolvency team, she answered queries on the most varied topics of bankruptcy law and its practical application for companies, beyond contributing to the preparation of newsletters and articles published in renowned specialized magazines. Nubia is recognized for creatively discerning strategic solutions for business disputes.

Education

- University extension in Mediation from Instituto de Mediação e Arbitragem do Brasil, 2020
- University extension in Bankruptcy from Escola Superior da Advocacia da Ordem dos Advogados do Brasil, 2020.
- University extension in Civil Procedure and Bankruptcy from Associação dos Advogados de São Paulo, 2019.
- University extension in Civil Procedure from Universidade Presbiteriana Mackenzie, 2015.
- Graduate of the Law School of Universidade Presbiteriana Mackenzie, 2013.

Additional Activities

- Full member of the International Relations Committee and Women Committee of OAB-SP (Brazilian Bar Association " São Paulo section).

Publications

- "Impacts of COVID-19 on Insolvency Proceedings in Brazil" article (co-author). Available on International Corporate Rescue (Chase Cambria) website, London, November, 2020.
- "Impacts of COVID-19 on Brazilian Insolvency Proceedings" article (co-author). Available in Insol International Latin América Newsletter, Issue No. 2, São Paulo, July, 2020.

Languages

- English