- I'm an African Female, that recognizes the imbalances that might exist in the world, but my gender and race neither define my capabilities nor potential, at the core of it I am a human being that strives for excellence. I acknowledge that even though my experience may be limited; my curiosity, willingness to challenge the status quo and learn compensates for my relative lack thereof.
- My Bcom Accounting degree from WITS University and my Postgraduate Diploma in Management (PDM) from Wits Business School has strategically positioned me for a career in banking, finance and advisory. I'm currently a CFA Level 1 candidate.

- Problem solving: Where my knowledge is limited, I research the topic/issue at hand to be more informed, after gaining an understanding then I'm able to think and work on potential solutions.
