I am a litigation lawyer in the firm's Commercial Litigation and Fraud, Asset Recovery and Investigations practice groups. In my day to day, I work closely with clients, other professionals, and colleagues from a myriad of practice areas. I have appeared at all levels of the Singapore Courts, assisted in mediations and in successfully negotiating settlements, and argued applications before the Singapore High Court. Some of the matters I am involved are as follows:

- Acting for liquidators of a failed start-up in an action against its former directors for breaches of directors' duties:
  - conducted pre-action examination of the directors;
  - drafted pleadings, interlocutory applications, and correspondence.
- Acting for an international online e-Commerce business in the recovery of payments made by its customers from a rogue payment processing agent:
  - second chair in successfully obtaining an ex parte worldwide freezing injunction and a contempt order against the defendant corporation and its director;
  - successfully argued disclosure application and resisted an application for security for costs as first chair.
- Acting for a group of claimants in pursuing the marketeers of a Ponzi scheme for claims in fraudulent misrepresentation and conspiracy:
  - drafted witness statements and led witness preparation sessions;
  - conducted examination in chief and re-examination of witness at trial;
  - successfully obtained leave for and managed protocol for more than 20 witnesses in 4 jurisdictions to give evidence by video conference.

- Acted for one of Singapore's largest conglomerates in internal and external investigations into corrupt payments:
  - liaised with Singapore's Corruption Practices Investigation Bureau and a cross-border legal team for the purposes of a global resolution;
  - document review and management, drafting of correspondence and documents.
