

Jacqueline Lee

Assistant Registrar, Supreme Court, Singapore
District Judge, Singapore

Jacqueline was appointed to the office of Assistant Registrar of the Supreme Court of Singapore in 2013 after several years of corporate and commercial litigation practice in one of the largest law practices in Singapore.

Jacqueline manages and hears matters in the company, insolvency, trusts and arbitration specialised lists, with focus on the management and disposal of bankruptcy matters as well as the management of corporate debt restructuring and cross-border insolvency matters. Outside of her judicial role, she has been actively involved in the work of the Judicial Insolvency Network since its establishment in 2016, including the issue of its Guidelines for Communication and Cooperation between Courts in Cross-Border Insolvency Matters and the Modalities of Court-to-Court Communication. She was also involved in the work on the Report of the Committee to Strengthen Singapore as an International Centre for Debt Restructuring published in April 2016.

Jacqueline holds concurrent appointment as a District Judge.
