This record is valid only if signed. The face of the original document has a blue background and the name of the university appears in small print. When photocopied, the word "COPY" appears prominently across the face of the document. The microprinting security line which reads "Bond University Security Line" under magnification will not be readable on a copy.

Key: HD - High Distinction (4); D - Distinction (3); C - Credit (2); P - Pass (1); F, WF, DNS - Fail Grades (0)

EX - Exemption; INC - Incomplete; ICON - Continuing Enrolment; W - Withdrawn; DE - Deferred Examination

Note: Credit points in parenthesis indicate they have not been credited to any award. Percentage grades were not recorded for all subjects until 1993 January Semester. Students who commenced a program prior to that semester will not have a cumulative percentage average calculated for that course.

See over for explanation of all grades.

BOND UNIVERSITY OFFICIAL ACADEMIC RECORD GUIDELINES

Credit Points

The credit point values for each subject are shown after each subject entry. Most undergraduate subjects have been assigned a value of 10 points. A standard full-time load is 40 credit points per semester. Credit points in parentheses indicate that they have not been credited towards any award.

Grade Point Average (GPA)

Grade Points may be assigned for each grade awarded. A semester GPA is the average of all grade points attained in all subjects weighted by the credit points assigned to each subject in a given semester. A cumulative GPA refers to all grades, averaged over the duration of the student's program.

Percentage Average (%AV)

A semester %AV is the average of all percentages attained in all subjects weighted by the credit points assigned to each subject in a given semester. A cumulative %AV refers to all percentages averaged over the student's program. Percentages for all subjects were recorded commencing 1993 January semester. Students who commenced a program prior to that date will not have a cumulative percentage average calculated for that program.
