Question 2.2 [maximum 5 marks]

Differentiate between the concepts of universality and territoriality in cross-border insolvency.

Universalism is an approach which allows more than one insolvency proceedings in different jurisdictions to be dealt with under the provisions of one insolvency law. Whereas Territorialism takes the approach that an insolvency procedure will only apply to the state where the insolvency procedure has been opened. A universality approach requires trust in foreign courts and legal systems since a single insolvency proceeding would have to consider the global impact, the choice of law and priority rules.

It would be beneficial to elaborate upon recognition and effect (as well as jurisdiction) in that for example, with universalism, recognition and effect requires that other States recognise that one set insolvency proceedings (that all agreed is the appropriate jurisdiction) and recognise it as having extraterritorial effect in their States.
