QUESTION 2 (direct questions) [10 marks]

Question 2.1 [maximum 2 marks]

Explain what the term "international insolvency law" means.

Refers to the regulation of the dealing of debtors with assets or creditors in more than one country who are experiencing financial distress. As oppose to a law which can be immediately enforced it is more a rulebook of measures to consider before assessing the international aspects of the case.

More detail would have improved the mark awarded for this sub-question.

1.5

Question 2.2 [maximum 5 marks]

Differentiate between the concepts of universality and territoriality in cross-border insolvency.

Universality concept relates to when there is only one insolvency proceeding which covers all the assets and debts of the debtor worldwide. Therefore there should only be one forum and no other insolvency proceedings or execution of debtor asset's possible.

In contrast the concept of territoriality applies when insolvency proceedings are commenced in every State or jurisdiction where assets of the debtor are held, however, territorially limited and restricted to property within the State's jurisdiction.

There is scope to elaborate with respect to recognition and effect in that for example, with universalism, recognition and effect requires that other States recognise that one set insolvency proceedings (that all agreed is the appropriate jurisdiction) and recognise it as having extraterritorial effect in their States.

Question 2.3 [maximum 3 marks]

Describe three recent examples of developments in the Middle East region to reform domestic insolvency laws or to address international insolvency Issues.

The UNCITRAL Model Law on Cross-border Insolvency has been adopted by Bahrain in 2018 and the Dubai International Financial Centre in 2019.

Domestic insolvency laws have been recently reformed by the UAE (2016 and 2019), Saudi Arabia (2018) and Dubai (2019).

More detail would have improved the mark awarded for this sub-question.

QUESTION 3 (essay-type questions) [15 marks in total]

Question 3.1 [maximum 5 marks]

Write a brief note on the differences regarding the objectives of insolvency for individuals and corporations.

The objective of insolvency of a corporation is not to preserve the company but instead, where possible to preserve the business and additionally to impose personal liability on those persons who have abused personal liability.

In contrast, the objective of an insolvency for individuals is focussed on protecting that individual from harassment from creditors and reducing indebtedness so that the individual can make a fresh start. It is important to consider personal circumstances as it is not always the individuals fault that the insolvency has occurred.

This answer displays a satisfactory understanding of the issues. To improve your responses, ensure they are commensurate with the mark allocation – while Q 3.1 asks for a brief note, it is for 5 marks.

3.5

Question 3.2 [maximum 5 marks]

Write a brief note on the difficulties that may be encountered when dealing with insolvency law in a cross-border context relating to pertinent differences in the relevant systems.

Firstly, the language around insolvency changes between systems e.g. some use “insolvency” while others use “bankruptcy”. The security also differs between systems e.g. floating charge concept in English Law is not known in other States. Some systems have a single piece of legislation for bankruptcy whilst others use a multiplicity of legislation. The distribution rules for payment of creditors also differ e.g. employees being prioritized over other creditors or secured creditors. Whether the system allows for discharge provisions or the debtor at the end of the administration also differs. And finally, important to note that the general applicable law of the jurisdiction differs which often has an effect on the insolvency.

Further detail would be beneficial. For example, consideration of Westbrook’s 9 key issues.

Question 3.3 [maximum 5 marks]

What multilateral steps have been taken in the 21st century to promote harmonisation of domestic insolvency laws? In your opinion, how much impact are these likely to have in addressing international insolvency issues? Include reasons for your opinion.

UNCITRAL implemented a ‘Legislative Guide on Insolvency Law’ in 2004 for national authorities and legislative bodies to reference when preparing new laws and regulations or reviewing existing with the aim to create insolvency laws which had a harmonized and fair framework.

‘Principles for Effective Insolvency and Creditor / Debtor Regimes’ were produced by the World Bank in the early 2000s and revised a number of times, most recently in April 2021. They sometimes refer countries to the Legislative Guide, promoting a convergence of insolvency law.

The 'Harmonisation of Insolvency Law at EU Level' was published by the European Parliament in 2010 which outlines the differences between domestic insolvency laws within the EU and also notes areas of insolvency law where harmonisation may be achievable and important within the EU.

The 'Action Plan on Building a Capital Markets Union' which released a final report in June 2020 reiterated the fact that cross-border insolvency and restructuring proceedings need to come together for greater legal certainty and timely restructuring.

What is your opinion on how much impact these are likely to have in addressing international insolvency issues?

QUESTION 4 (fact-based application-type question) [15 marks in total]

Nadir Pty Ltd ("Nadir") is a company registered in Utopia. Originally it was incorporated in the neighbouring country of Erewhon before moving its registration and head office to Utopia one month ago. Apex Pty Ltd ("Apex") is incorporated and has its head office in Erewhon. Apex and Nadir enter into a contract by exchange of emails between their head offices for Apex to supply goods to Nadir in Utopia. Nadir has failed to pay for the goods which have been delivered in accordance with the contract. Apex issues court proceedings against Nadir in Utopia for monies owing for the goods sold and delivered.

Meanwhile, Nadir also owes monies to creditors in Erewhon. One Erewhon creditor obtains a court winding-up order against Nadir in Erewhon and a liquidator is also appointed by that court.

If you require additional information to answer the questions that follow, briefly state what information it is you require and why it is relevant.

Question 4.1 [maximum 5 marks]

Assume the UNCITRAL Model Law on Cross-border Insolvency has been adopted by Utopia without modification, except as required to domesticate it. For example, the Cross-border Insolvency Act of Utopia names its local laws relating to insolvency and its competent court under the Act. The Erewhon liquidator's investigations detect that Apex is suing Nadir in Utopia. The liquidator would like to stop Apex court action against Nadir in Utopia. Advise the Erewhon liquidator on the potential relevance of the Cross-border Insolvency Act of Utopia.

The Cross-border Insolvency Act is very relevant here as the winding-up order has been obtained in a different jurisdiction to the one that the debtor (Nadir) is currently registered and has its headquarters.

The MLCBI is significant for its provisions on recognition and relief in 4.1. The question requires candidates to apply the relevant MLCBI articles to the facts provided in more detail than that above.

1

Question 4.2 [maximum 2 marks]

Would it make any difference to your answer in question 4.1 in the following two alternative scenarios to Apex suing for its debt?

- (a) Apex had filed proceedings to wind-up Nadir, but the matter had not yet been heard.
- (b) Apex had obtained a court order to wind-up Nadir in Utopia prior to the Erewhon winding-up order.

If the proceedings had been filed but not heard it would not make a difference.

If the court order had been obtained prior to the Erewhon winding-up order it would make a difference as the winding-up order would be within the jurisdiction of incorporation for Nadir.

Refer to Article 29 on concurrent insolvency proceedings, under which the local proceedings in Utopia maintain pre-eminence over the foreign proceedings in Erewhon.

Question 4.3 [maximum 8 marks]

NB: This question is not related to Questions 4.1 and 4.2

A court has ordered the commencement of an insolvency proceeding against a corporate debtor in the State of its incorporation and head office. The company has operated business in a number of States and has assets (real property or interest in land, other tangible assets and intangible assets); creditors (including taxation / revenue authorities) and directors in several States.

Select a country for the company's incorporation and, based on the insolvency laws of the country you select and the brief facts provided, describe four key international insolvency issues facing the insolvency representative in this scenario. For each issue, what domestic laws or international instruments apply to assist the insolvency representative address these four issues?

The company in this example is assumed to be incorporated in the Cayman Islands.

The general applicable law of the Cayman Islands in comparison to the other States will have to be considered especially for the assets in each jurisdiction if a sale process is going to occur, including taxes which need to be accounted for.

The ability for the liquidator to take the assets under their control will also pose an issue with the overseas assets.

Whether the priority for revenue authorities will come into effect and the order of priority for distribution.

As the directors are residing in different jurisdictions reference could be made to Part 4 of the UNCITRAL Legislative Guide for Director's Obligations for guidance.

Provide detail on the Cayman Islands CBI laws to the issues you identify (for this 8 mark question).
