Questions 1.1. – 1.10. are multiple-choice questions designed to assess your ability to think critically about the subject. Please read each question carefully before reading the answer options. Be aware that some questions may seem to have more than one right answer, but you are to look for the one that makes the most sense and is the most correct. When you have a clear idea of the question, find your answer and mark your selection on the answer sheet by highlighting the relevant paragraph in yellow. Select only ONE answer. Candidates who select more than one answer will receive no mark for that specific question.

Question 1.1

Unlike (former) continental insolvency rules, the English insolvency laws provided for a rather liberal discharge of debt provision since 1570. Select the most accurate response to this statement from (a) – (d) below.

- (a) This statement is correct since the English insolvency system was viewed as a pro-creditor system since its early development.
- (b) This statement is correct since the English insolvency system, unlike continental systems, never provided for imprisonment for debt of insolvents and preferred to treat debtors in a humane way.
- (c) This statement is incorrect since a statutory discharge of debt was only introduced in 1705 in England.
- (d) This statement is incorrect since most of the continental insolvency rules provided for a liberal discharge of debt even before English law considered the introduction of such a dispensation.

Question 1.2

English insolvency law was not affected by the Covid-19 pandemic to date. Select the most accurate response to this statement from (a) – (d) below.

- (a) This statement is correct since the UK decided to merely provide financial aid to financially troubled entities and individuals.
- (b) This statement is correct since the legislative reform process in the UK is too slow to effect amendments to an elaborate piece of legislation such as its Insolvency Act of 1986.
- (c) This statement is correct since the English insolvency law already provided special rules to deal with extreme socio-economic situations like those brought about by global disasters such as the Covid-19 pandemic.
- (d) The statement is incorrect since the UK did review parts of its insolvency rules and amended some, amongst other things, to deal with the negative economic fall out of the pandemic.

Question 1.3

Since the Dutch insolvency system is rather outdated when compared with English or American insolvency / bankruptcy laws, it does not provide for a modern scheme of arrangement that could be used to reorganise or rescue a company in distress. Select the most accurate response to this statement from (a) – (d) below.

- (a) This statement is correct since the Dutch insolvency system does not provide for a discharge of debt and without such a dispensation in place, a scheme of arrangement will not be functional.
- (b) This statement is correct since the Dutch government has not approved such legislation yet.

There is no real need for the reform and establishment of a more uniform set of cross-border insolvency rules since the courts of the various States around the globe are well-equipped to deal with such issues by way of judicial discretion and since the broad rules of local insolvency legal systems are largely the same. Select the most accurate response to this statement from (a) – (d) below.

- (a) This statement is correct since courts cooperating across jurisdictional borders are familiar with global insolvency principles.

Universalism has become the main approach regarding the application of cross-border insolvency rules around the globe since the majority of States follow a strict adherence to comity. Select the most accurate response to this statement from (a) – (d) below.

QUESTION 2 (direct questions) [10 marks]

Question 2.1 [maximum 3 marks]

Briefly indicate three significant (historical) developments regarding debt collection procedures in English law that shaped the way of thinking concerning modern insolvency law.

The Bankruptcy act of 1542 provided for collective participation of creditors; The Act of Elizabeth created the possibility of a creditor's meeting; The Statute of Ann of 1705 brought the idea of discharge of the debts upon cooperation with bankruptcy proceedings.

The question asked you to indicate significant developments, rather than legislations per se. You needed to identify developments that shaped the way of thinking with respect to modern insolvency law. You have identified the notice of “discharge”. It would be beneficial to elaborate with respect to fresh start. You have also raised collective participation, and it would be beneficial to elaborate regarding how this shaped modern thinking also. Other things to consider are the abolishment of imprisonment for debt or the introduction of formal regulatory structures.

Question 2.2 [maximum 3 marks]

Following the Covid-19 pandemic, States across the globe had to introduce measures to deal with the negative economic fall out of this pandemic. Briefly indicate three insolvency and insolvency-related measures so introduced in the UK.

UK passed the Corporate and Insolvency Governance Act of 2020 providing temporary measures such as suspension of serving statutory demands, restrictions on winding-up petitions where unpaid debt is due to COVID and suspension of the wrongful trading rules.

QUESTION 3 (essay-type questions) [15 marks in total]

Question 3.1 [maximum 5 marks]

Briefly discuss the various possible different sources of insolvency laws in any State and how they may interact with each other.

Most States base their insolvency laws in legislation or codes, It would be beneficial to discuss insolvency legislation as either a code or multiplicity of legislation and how this varies from State to State but some still use common law It would be beneficial to discuss common law in common law countries as filling any gaps in law. Regardless, different pieces of legislation can impact in insolvency law, such as ownership rights or corporate acts, as well as established precedents and recommendations from specialized bodies. Above legislation, are legal principles that can orient the legal systems, like the protection of business and maintenance of jobs.

This answer displays a satisfactory understanding. To improve your responses, ensure they are commensurate with the mark allocation – while Q 3.1 asks for a brief note, it is for 5 marks.

Question 3.2 [maximum 5 marks]

A number of difficulties arise in cross-border insolvencies, including as a result of differences in laws between States. Harmonisation of insolvency laws is pursued. In an attempt to bring the “cross-border” aspects and the “insolvency” aspects together, Fletcher asks three very pertinent questions. Discuss these pertinent questions / issues raised by Fletcher.

As appointed by Fletcher, jurisdiction, applicable laws and international effects are the main concerns when dealing with cross-border insolvency. When trying to address these issues, UNCITRAL model law provided for the concept of COMI, directing jurisdiction to the main establishment of the debtor and consequently its applicable law, but the enforcement of decisions in different states continues to be a challenge face in each State.

To improve your responses, ensure they are commensurate with the mark allocation – while Q 3.2 asks for a brief note, it is for 5 marks. It would be beneficial to set out the three questions and discuss them detail.

Question 3.3 [maximum 5 marks]

It is said that “co-ordination agreements are sometimes known as Protocols or Cross-border Insolvency Agreements. Their growing acceptance internationally is evident in the work by the ALI-III in their Guidelines Applicable to Court-to-Court Communication in Cross-Border Cases; by UNICTRAL in their Practice Guide on Cross-border Insolvency Agreements; and by the Judicial Insolvency Network in their Guidelines for Communication and Cooperation between Courts in Cross-Border Insolvency Matters...”

It is also said that “While court approval of such agreements for the purposes of co-ordinating insolvency proceedings is encouraged by the MLCBI, they in fact pre-date the Model Law.”

Briefly discuss a prominent case law example for this last quotation.

Maxwell Communications Corporation PLC case of 1991, a cross-border insolvency case with proceedings in United States and England is a prominent case. QUESTION 4 (fact-based application-type question) [15 marks in total]

Rydell Co Ltd (Rydell) is an incorporated company with offices in the UK and throughout Europe. Its centre of main interest (COMI) is in the UK. Rydell supplies engine parts for large vehicles, including airplanes, and has had a downturn in business due to border closures and travel restrictions throughout the Covid-19 pandemic.

Rydell's main creditor is Fernz Co Ltd (Fernz) which is incorporated in a country in Europe that is a member of the EU. Fernz is considering commencing proceedings or pursuing other options with respect to recovering unpaid debts from Rydell.

There are a number of other creditors owed money by Rydell, who are located throughout different countries in Europe which are all members of the European Union.

If you require additional information to answer the questions that follow, briefly state what information it is you require and why it is relevant.

Question 4.1 [maximum 7 marks]

An insolvency proceeding against Rydell was opened in the UK by a minor creditor on 18 June 2020. A month later, Fernz was considering also opening proceedings in another country in Europe which was a member of the European Union.

Discuss if and how the European Insolvency Regulation Recast would apply. Also note what further information, if any, you might require to fully consider this question.

The European Insolvency Regulation was applicable for UK until December 2020, thus EIR would be applied to this case. To consider opening proceedings in another country, Fernz would have analyse if Rydell has an establishment in such country, allowing a secondary procedure.

To improve your responses, ensure they are commensurate with the mark allocation – the question is for 7 marks.

3

Question 4.2 [maximum 3 marks]

How would your answer to 4.1 differ if the proceedings were opened in the UK on 18 June 2021 instead of 18 June 2020? Also note what further information, if any, might become relevant.

Yes, since EIR cease to apply after 31 December 2021. Nonetheless, EIR could be used to recognize the existence of insolvency proceedings outside of the EU.

To improve your responses, ensure they are commensurate with the mark allocation – the question is for 3 marks.

1.5

Question 4.3 [maximum 5 marks]

Consider an alternative situation now. What if Rydell were unregistered with its COMI in a country in Europe that was a member of the European Union, instead of the UK, and formal insolvency proceedings were opened in the UK on 18 June 2021? What UK domestic laws would be relevant to consider whether the minor creditor could commence those formal insolvency proceedings in the UK?

Section 221 of the Insolvency Act of 1986 would apply, allowing a winding up order of a foreign unregistered company if the company is dissolved, unable to pay its debts or if the court is of opinion that it is just and equitable the company should be wound up.

To improve your responses, ensure they are commensurate with the mark allocation – the question is for 5 marks.
