ANSWER ALL THE QUESTIONS

QUESTION 1 (multiple-choice questions) [10 marks in total]

Questions 1.1. – 1.10. are multiple-choice questions designed to assess your ability to think critically about the subject. Please read each question carefully before reading the answer options. Be aware that some questions may seem to have more than one right answer, but you are to look for the one that makes the most sense and is the most correct. When you have a clear idea of the question, find your answer and mark your selection on the answer sheet by highlighting the relevant paragraph in yellow. Select only ONE answer. Candidates who select more than one answer will receive no mark for that specific question.

Question 1.1

The EIR 2000 substantively harmonised the national insolvency law of the Member States.

- (b) True. Since the entry into force of the EIR 2000, the insolvency laws of the Member States are similar.
- (c) False. The objective of the EIR 2000 was not to harmonise aspects of national insolvency laws but to provide non-binding guidelines only.
- (d) False. While the EIR 2000 attempted to harmonise national insolvency laws, its focus was on procedural aspects of insolvency law, not substantive ones.

D was the correct answer.

Question 1.2

The EIR 2000 was the first ever European initiative to attempt to harmonise the insolvency laws of Member States.

Question 1.3

- (a) True. The EIR 2000 proved to be inefficient and incapable of supporting the effective resolution of cross-border cases over the years.

(b) True. As a result, the EIR 2000 lacked the support of major stakeholders such as insolvency practitioners, businesses and public authorities who considered the instrument fruitless.

(c) False. While a number of shortcomings were identified by an evaluation study and a public consultation, the EIR 2000 was generally regarded as a successful instrument by most stakeholders, including practitioners, businesses, the EU institutions and insolvency academics.

(d) False. The EIR 2000 was considered a complete success to support cross-border insolvency cases and, as a result, the wording of the EIR Recast mirrored its 2000 predecessor.

(a) The EIR Recast is a copy of the EIR 2000. Its structure and the wording of all articles are similar.

(b) Although the EIR Recast includes relevant and useful innovations, it has stuck with the framework of the EIR 2000 and mostly codified the jurisprudence of the CJEU.

(c) The EIR Recast has not added any new concept to the text of the EIR 2000.

(d) It is incorrect to say that the EIR Recast has not overhauled the status quo at all. On the contrary, the EIR Recast has departed from the text of its predecessor and is a completely new instrument which has rejected all existing concepts and rules.

Question 1.5

Why can it be said that the EIR Recast is more rescue-oriented than the EIR 2000?

(a) The EIR Recast is more rescue-oriented because all domestic rescue procedures fall within its scope.

(b) The EIR Recast is more rescue-oriented because it harmonises all substantive aspects of national insolvency laws.

(c) It is incorrect to say that the EIR Recast is more rescue-oriented than the EIR 2000, as the latter was already heavily rescue-focused.

(d) The EIR Recast is more rescue-oriented because its scope was extended to cover pre-insolvency proceedings and secondary proceedings can now also be rescue proceedings.

Question 1.6

During the reform process of the EIR 2000, what main elements were identified as needing to be revised within the framework of the Regulation (whether adopted or not)?

The EIR Recast introduced the concept of “synthetic proceedings”. What are they?

- (a) “Synthetic proceedings” means that for the case at hand, several main proceedings can be opened, in addition to several secondary proceedings.
- (b) “Synthetic proceedings” means that when secondary proceedings are opened, these are automatically rescue proceedings, as opposed to liquidation proceedings.
- (c) “Synthetic proceedings” means that insolvency practitioners in all secondary proceedings should treat the proceedings they are dealing with as main proceedings for the purpose of protecting the interests of local creditors.
- (d) “Synthetic proceedings” means that when an insolvency practitioner in the main insolvency proceedings has given an undertaking in accordance with Article 36, the court asked to open secondary proceedings should not, at the request of the insolvency practitioner, open them if they are satisfied that the undertaking adequately protects the general interests of local creditors.

Question 1.8

The contested payments have been made by Fema SrL to Lacroix SARL before the former went insolvent. Considering the facts of the case and relevant provisions of the EIR Recast, which one of the following statements is the most accurate?

- (a) The insolvency practitioner will always succeed in his claim if he can clearly prove that under the lex concursus, the contested payments can be avoided (Article 7(2)(m) EIR Recast).
- (b) The contested transactions cannot be avoided if Lacroix SARL can prove that the lex causae (including its general provisions and insolvency rules) does not allow any means of challenging the contested transactions, and provided that the parties did not choose that law for abusive or fraudulent ends.
- (c) To defend the contested payments Lacroix SARL can rely solely, in a purely abstract manner, on the unchallengeable character of the payments at issue on the basis of a provision of the lex causae.
- (d) The contested payments shall not be avoided if Lacroix SARL proves that such transactions cannot be challenged on the basis of the insolvency provisions of German law (Article 16 EIR Recast).

B was the correct answer.

The difference aspects that were introduced in the EIR Recast are as follows: 1) The need of insolvency practice which is aimed towards broading scope to restructuring proceedings, having stronger rules for cooperation between insolvency practitioners and courts, possibility of proceedings with regard to members 2)Secondly, Improving creditor information which focused on the Interconnectivity of insolvency registers 3) Lastly, General modernization of the legal rules (i.e.Data protections).

The three improvements/ innovations that were made their way into the EIR Recast are: 1)The need of insolvency practice which is aimed towards broading scope to restructuring proceedings, having stronger rules for cooperation between insolvency practitioners and courts, possibility of proceedings with regard to members 2) Secondly, Improving creditor information which focused on the Interconnectivity of insolvency registers 3) Lastly, General modernization of the legal rules (i.e.Data protections).

QUESTION 4 (fact-based application-type question) [15 marks in total]

Cardinal Home is an Ireland-registered furniture company. The company opened its first store in Cork, Ireland in 2009 and has warehouses across Europe, including in Milan, Italy. In 2010, Cardinal Home entered into a credit agreement with an Italian bank since it was planning to expand its reach to the Spanish luxury furniture market, expected to grow by over 8% annually. It opened a bank account with the bank and started negotiating with local distributors, thus signing some (non-binding) memoranda of understanding with them.

Cardinal Home grew and performed well for several years. However, the impact of the economic and financial crisis of the late 2000s eventually hit the company who suffered financial difficulties from 2016. On 22 June 2017, it filed a petition to open examinership proceedings in the High Court in Dublin, Ireland.

Question 4.1 [maximum 5 marks] 3.5

Assume that the EIR 2000 applies. Does the Dublin High Court have international jurisdiction to open the requested insolvency proceeding? (Explain why it does or does not have jurisdiction.) Your answer should contain references to the applicable law and the relevant CJEU jurisprudence.

Yes, Dublin High Court have international jurisdiction to open the requested insolvency proceeding. Insolvency proceedings can only be opened in a jurisdiction of the debtor's, Cardinal Home's centre of main interest.

Centre of main interest according to Recital 13 EIR 2000, explains the centre of main interest (COMI) is a place where the debtor conducts the administration of its interests on a regular basis.

Although recitals are not enforceable, it will be left to the interpretation of the courts.

Cardinal Home's is registered in Ireland and has operations in the country since this where their first store was opened. Therefore, Ireland would be considered the centre of main interest and proceedings can be opened in courts in Dublin, Ireland.

The CJEU that demonstrated this is that of Eurofood IFSC Ltd.

Question 4.2 [maximum 5 marks] 4

Assume that the Dublin High Court opens the respective proceeding on 30 June 2017. Will the EIR Recast be applicable? Your answer should address the EIR Recast's scope and contain all steps taken to answer the question.

The different scopes will need to be assessed and questions will need to be answered. The different scopes are temporal scope, personal scope, material scope, geographical scope.

A step-by-step plan can be drawn as followed:

- 1) The debtor has centre of main interest in a member state of the EU, except Denmark.
- 2) The debtor is not a bank, insurance company or another excluded undertaking
- 3) The proceeding opened against the debtor is listed in Annex A to the EIR Recast
- 4) The proceeding is opened after 26th June 2017.

The answer to call these questions are Yes, so there the EIR Recast will be applicable.

It would have been good to name the scopes (material, individual, geographical, etc.)

Question 4.3 [maximum 5 marks] 1

An Italian bank files a petition to open secondary insolvency proceedings in Italy with the purpose of securing an Italian insolvency distribution ranking. Given the facts of the case, can such proceedings be opened in Italy under the EIR Recast? Your answer should contain references to the applicable law and the relevant CJEU jurisprudence.

According to Article 3(2) EIR Recast, it is allowed that there is the opening of secondary proceeding in any Member state where the debtor possesses an establishment. Since Cardinal Home's has warehouses in Milan, Italy, a secondary insolvency proceeding can be opened in that state.

According to Recital 23, the opening of the secondary proceedings, would run in parallel with the main proceedings and will only be allowed to produce effects on assets that are within that state in which the secondary proceedings is taking place.

The CJEU to back this is that of Eurofood IFSC Ltd.

This is incorrect –

- According to Article 3(2) EIR Recast, where the debtor's COMI is situated within the territory of a Member State, the courts of another Member State shall have jurisdiction to open insolvency proceedings against that debtor only if it possesses an establishment within the territory of that other Member State.
- Under Article 2(10) EIR Recast, 'establishment' means any place of operations where a debtor carries out or has carried out in the 3-month period prior to the request to open main insolvency proceedings a non-transitory economic activity with human means and assets.
- Relevant case law: Interedil Srl, in liquidation v Fallimento Interedil Srl, Case C-396/09, ECLI:EU:C:2011:671 (Oct. 20, 2011), Burgo Group SpA v Illochroma SA, Case C-327/13, ECLI:EU:C:2014:2158 (Sep. 4, 2014).
- The facts of the case do not support the finding of an establishment of Cardinal Home in Italy. The presence alone of assets (leased-out warehouse) in isolation, contractual relations with a local bank (including maintenance of a bank account) and occasional negotiations (whether individual or collective) with local distributors do not qualify as 'non-transitory economic activity with human means and assets'. The requisite minimum level of organisation and a degree of stability (see para. 64 in Interedil) is evidently missing.

- Therefore, under the EIR Recast, secondary insolvency proceedings cannot be opened in Italy.
