Gambling Corporation is incorporated and has a principal place of business in Greece and it operates casinos and betting parlors in many international cities, including Athens, Las Vegas, London and Macau. Gambling Corp's bonds (governed by English law) are due to mature in one (1) year, but it is unable to repay or refinance them. Gambling Corp is considering using an English scheme of arrangement to restructure the bonds.
Discuss whether the English scheme of arrangement could be granted recognition under US chapter 15 as a foreign main or foreign non-main proceeding.
The English scheme of arrangement can be classified as "foreign proceeding" which is recognizable and defined broadly by the Bankruptcy Code as "a collective judicial or administrative proceeding in a foreign country, including an interim proceeding, under a law relating to insolvency or adjustment of debt in which proceeding the assets and affairs of the debtor are subject to control or supervision by a foreign court, for the purpose of reorganization or liquidation."
Furthermore, Gambling Corp operates casinos and betting parlors in cities including Las Vegas therefore it should have assets in United States.
Contention would arise at the recognition stage on whether the proceeding is characterized as foreign main or foreign non-main, which would affect the scope of relief available to debtor. Foreign main proceedings are commenced in the debtor's center of main interest (COMI),	Commonled INVELL County America

In this case, although the bonds were governed by English law, Gambling Corp is incorporated and has a principal place of business in Greece. It does not appear that the COMI of Gambling Corp is in England considering those factors therefore the English scheme of arrangement could be granted recognition under US chapter 15 as a foreign non-main proceeding. Oil Corporation is incorporated in Delaware and has its principal place of business in Texas. Oil Corp is facing a number of challenges to its business. First, ShipCo, one of its key customers, has filed a breach of contract lawsuit in Texas state court alleging that Oil Corp sold it contaminated oil that caused USD 1 billion in damage to ShipCo's container ships. Second, the US Department of Justice is investigating whether Oil Corp illegally purchased oil from countries subject to US sanctions. Third, Oil Corp. has missed a payment on its secured loan from USA Bank, and USA Bank is threatening to foreclose on an Oil Corp refinery located in the Philippines. Fourth, because of all these distractions, Oil Corp has forgotten to pay rent on its Houston, Texas office space and its landlord is threatening to evict it. What would be the effect of Oil Corp filing a chapter 11 petition on each of these four situations?

ShipCo : Once Oil Corp file a chapter 11 petition, the worldwide automatic stay comes into effect immediately under s.362 since ShipCo's claim is a litigation on pre-petition claim. ShipCo as a claim holder becomes a creditor of Oil Corp and would have the right to vote for or against the reorganization plan if being classified into an impaired class.	Commented [H(55]: Correct, 1 mark Commented [H(56]: litigation on a pre-petition claim would b stayed by the automatic stay
US Department of Justice : The automatic stay is subject to certain statutory exceptions under s.362, including criminal proceedings and regulatory investigations therefore the Department may continue to conduct necessary investigation and commence prosecution action, if necessary.	Commented [H(57]: Correct, 1 mark
USA Bank : After the chapter 11 petition is filed, USA Bank as a secured creditor would continue to retain the lien securing such claim. Should the security falls over the refinery located in Philippines, USA Bank can continue to foreclose the same and sale proceeds (after settling their claim) would form part of the Oil Corp's estate. If the refinery is sold under the plan, USA Bank would be paid in full (subject to payment of costs to trustee), including interest and costs if the value of the collateral allows.	Commented [H(58]: Incorrect, the stay bars an action to take control of estate assets anywhere in the world
Landlord : The lease is an executory contract. Under chapter 11 petition, Oil Corp could decide (upon confirmation of the plan) on whether to reject, assume or "assume and assign" the contract. Should Oil Corp decide to reject the lease, the landlord would have an unsecured pre-petition claim in damages. Should they decide to assume the lease, Oil Corp must cure defaults and give the landlord sufficient assurance of future performance. If Oil Corp continue to occupy the premises, it is deemed to have assumed the lease based on conduct.	Commented [H(59]: Because the lease has not expired prior t the bankruptcy, the automatic stay prevents the landlord from evicting Oil Corp

Oil Corp has filed for bankruptcy and is planning to sell its plastic manufacturing business through a 363 sale. The plastic manufacturing business operates under the trademark "Interconnect", which is licensed from Plastic Corp. Oil Corp has invented several patented processes for plastic manufacturing, which it licenses to Plastic Corp. The main manufacturing facility for the plastic business is in Dallas, and Oil Corp has granted a lien on the facility to USA Bank to secure its USD 500 million loan.

Can Oil Corp achieve each of these goals without the consent of Plastic Corp and USA Bank? Why or why not?
(i) The trademark license agreement is an executory contract and is not assignable in the absence of licensor's consent as held in Re Trump Entertainment Resorts, Inc and under s.365(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. Oil Corp must be certain that the agreement expressly	Commented [H(61]: Correct, 1 mark, this is because trademar law permits a licensor to refuse to accept performance from an assignee
