QUESTION 2 (direct questions) [10 marks]

Question 2.1 [maximum 2 marks]

Explain what the term "international insolvency law" means.

[International insolvency law means a complex of rules regarding insolvency definitions, institutes and proceedings which are meant to be universal despite the impossibility of being enforced and applicable in all States. As a global package of rules, international insolvency law reports to insolvency issues on cross-border (transnational) basis, providing a uniform approach as a form of levelling the different legal systems or at least orientating interpretation and the construction or restructuring of local legal systems.]

2

Question 2.2 [maximum 5 marks]

Differentiate between the concepts of universality and territoriality in cross-border insolvency.

[Universalism and territorialism are both theories regarding cross-border insolvency problem resolutions. Universalism relate to the acknowledgement that only one forum should have jurisdiction on the insolvency proceeding. Territorialism, on the other hand, presuppose that insolvency proceedings may take place in every jurisdiction where assets 'debtors exist.]

These theories also involve recognition and effect (as well as jurisdiction) in that for example, with universalism, recognition and effect requires that other States recognise that one set insolvency proceedings (that all agreed is the appropriate jurisdiction) and recognise it as having extraterritorial effect in their States.

2.5

Question 2.3 [maximum 3 marks]

Describe three recent examples of developments in the Middle East region to reform domestic insolvency laws or to address international insolvency Issues.

[In the last years Saudi Arabia and Dubai have reformed their domestic insolvency laws and Bahrain has adopted the Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency.]

More detail would have improved the mark awarded for this sub-question.

QUESTION 3 (essay-type questions) [15 marks in total]

Question 3.1 [maximum 5 marks]

Write a brief note on the differences regarding the objectives of insolvency for individuals and corporations.

[Insolvency for corporations, as it might be intuitive on modern basis, is entitled to preserve the business; Insolvency for individuals, in its turn, is supposed to protect the debtor from the abuses perpetrated by his creditors, enabling - when possible - the debtor to make fresh start.]

This answer displays a satisfactory understanding of the issues. To improve your responses, ensure they are commensurate with the mark allocation – while Q 3.1 asks for a brief note, it is for 5 marks.

3

Question 3.2 [maximum 5 marks]

Write a brief note on the difficulties that may be encountered when dealing with insolvency law in a cross-border context relating to pertinent differences in the relevant systems.

[Dealing with insolvency law in a cross-border context relates to dealing with insolvency proceeding in one state and creditors in another, subsidiaries, assets, operations and creditors in multiple states, and many other complex situations regarding the conflict of legislation, forum jurisdiction, enforcement of foreign decisions, etc.]

Further detail would be beneficial. For example, consideration of Westbrook's 9 key issues.

3

Question 3.3 [maximum 5 marks]

What multilateral steps have been taken in the 21st century to promote harmonisation of domestic insolvency laws? In your opinion, how much impact are these likely to have in addressing international insolvency issues? Include reasons for your opinion.

[In the 21st century there have been many attempts to promote harmonisation of domestic insolvency laws which are corporified on multilateral documents, such as i. UNCITRAL Legislative Guide on Insolvency Law, the ii. Principles for Effective Insolvency and Creditor/Debtor Regimes, from World Bank and the iii. Report on the Harmonisation of Insolvency Law at EU Level, published by the European Parliament.] All of them, in my opinion, impact greatly in the addressing of international insolvency issues they all seem to provide a uniform approach as a form of levelling the different legal systems or at least orientating interpretation and the construction or restructuring of local legal systems.]

There is scope to consider political pressure, foreign investor pressure and/or loan conditions.

QUESTION 4 (fact-based application-type question) [15 marks in total]

Nadir Pty Ltd (Nadir) is a company registered in Utopia. Originally it was incorporated in the neighbouring country of Erewhon before moving its registration and head office to Utopia one month ago. Apex Pty Ltd (Apex) is incorporated and has its head office in Erewhon. Apex and Nadir enter into a contract by exchange of emails between their head offices for Apex to supply goods to Nadir in Utopia. Nadir has failed to pay for the goods which have been delivered in accordance with the contract. Apex issues court proceedings against Nadir in Utopia for monies owing for the goods sold and delivered.

Meanwhile, Nadir also owes monies to creditors in Erewhon. One Erewhon creditor obtains a court winding-up order against Nadir in Erewhon and a liquidator is also appointed by that court.

If you require additional information to answer the questions that follow, briefly state what information it is you require and why it is relevant.

Question 4.1 [maximum 5 marks]

Assume the UNCITRAL Model Law on Cross-border Insolvency has been adopted by Utopia without modification, except as required to domesticate it. For example, the Cross-border Insolvency Act of Utopia names its local laws relating to insolvency and its competent court under the Act. The Erewhon liquidator's investigations detect that Apex is suing Nadir in Utopia. The liquidator would like to stop Apex court action against Nadir in Utopia. Advise the Erewhon liquidator on the potential relevance of the Cross-border Insolvency Act of Utopia.

[I would advise the Erewhon liquidator positively in the sense that the Cross-border Insolvency Act of Utopia may be potentially relevant in this situation: firstly, the Cross-border Insolvency Act of Utopia may allow the stay of proceedings in Utopia's courts if there is recognition of the Erewhon winding-up order; secondly, the Cross-border Insolvency Act of Utopia shall provide for the recognition of the winding-up order obtained against Nadir in Erewhon.]

More detail would have improved the mark awarded for this sub-question.

4

Question 4.2 [maximum 2 marks]

Would it make any difference to your answer in question 4.1 in the following two alternative scenarios to Apex suing for its debt?

- (a) Apex had filed proceedings to wind-up Nadir, but the matter had not yet been heard.
- (b) Apex had obtained a court order to wind-up Nadir in Utopia prior to the Erewhon winding-up order.

[The relevance of the Cross-border Insolvency Act of Utopia subsists. In the first scenario (a), the Erewhon liquidator may control Nadir's assets by obtaining an Utopian court order to stay the winding-up proceedings initiated by Apex, considering the recognition of the Erewhon winding-up order. In the second scenario, since Apex had obtained a court order to wind-up Nadir in Utopia prior to the Erewhon winding-up order, the Erewhon liquidator will need to provide recognition and enforcement of the Erewhon winding-up order in Utopia.]

Refer to Article 29 on concurrent insolvency proceedings, under which the local proceedings in Utopia maintain pre-eminence over the foreign proceedings in Erewhon.

Question 4.3 [maximum 8 marks]

NB: This question is not related to Questions 4.1 and 4.2

A court has ordered the commencement of an insolvency proceeding against a corporate debtor in the State of its incorporation and head office. The company has operated business in a number of States and has assets (real property or interest in land, other tangible assets and intangible assets); creditors (including taxation / revenue authorities) and directors in several States.

Select a country for the company's incorporation and, based on the insolvency laws of the country you select and the brief facts provided, describe four key international insolvency issues facing the insolvency representative in this scenario. For each issue, what domestic laws or international instruments apply to assist the insolvency representative address these four issues?

[Selecting UK as a reference, four international insolvency issues may arise: i. jurisdiction and applicable law (The Insolvency Act of 1986 of UK and the UNCITRAL Model Law on Cross-border insolvency are applicable), ii. asset realization in multiple states (The Insolvency Act of 1986 of UK and the UNCITRAL Model Law on Cross-border insolvency are applicable); iii. Taxation (The Insolvency Act of 1986 of UK is applicable, as long as bilateral tax treaties, iv. Director's duties (The companies act of 2006 of the UK and the UNCITRAL Model Law on Cross-border insolvency are applicable).]
