PART 2 - SEQUESTRATION (40 MARKS)

QUESTION 2

Questions 2.1 - 2.9 are based on the set of facts provided below. Answer ALL the questions.

Mr and Mrs Solar were married to each other out community of property in 2012. They reside in a four-bedroom property in an upmarket country estate on the beautiful east coast in Ballito, KwaZulu-Natal. The immovable property is subject to a mortgage bond in favour of ABC Bank. The marital home is fully furnished and the Solar's acquired some beautiful luxury and antique furnishings during the course of their marriage. In the latter part of 2021 Mr Solar donates a valuable and timeless Victorian sofa and server to his wife which she proudly exhibits in the home. The remaining furniture and antiques have been paid for in cash, apart from the photocopier in the home office which is subject to a lease agreement concluded with Speedy Copiers (Pty) Ltd by Mr Solar.

Mr Solar also owns a small apartment in Florence, Italy where the family enjoy spending their annual holiday.

Mr Solar drives a 2022 BMW X5 which was purchased on instalment sale agreement and financed by FCM Vehicle Finance Ltd. Mrs Solar drives a 2016 Hyundai i20 which Mr Solar purchased from Mr Green in terms of an ordinary credit sale agreement. The agreement was concluded on 5 August 2022. Mr Solar paid a deposit in the sum of R20,000 and by agreement ownership in the vehicle had passed on delivery. The balance of R80,000 is due to be paid by way of monthly instalments of R10,000 each until the balance is paid, to date, Mr Solar has paid R40,000 in terms of the agreement.

On 5 December 2022 and after being pressured by Mr Hasty, an irate creditor who loaned Mr Solar money, Mr Solar delivers one of his valuable antique clocks to him to settle his debt in full.

On 5 January 2023 an application for the sequestration of the estate of Mr Solar is filed in the KwaZulu-Natal High Court Division, Durban at the instance of Axit Finance in respect of an unpaid personal loan. Mr Solar's estate is provisionally sequestrated on 15 January 2023 and the order is made final on 20 February 2023.

On the date of sequestration Mr Solar is a director of an accounting firm, Sum-It-Up (Pty) Ltd and earns a generous salary of R120,000 per month. Mrs Solar works at the local high school as a teacher and earns R25,000 per month.

Two months after the final order of sequestration is granted, Mr Solar inherits R500,000 from his father, which inheritance he accepts on 1 May 2023. Mrs Solar decides to resign from her position at the local school and receives a pension pay out of R600,000. Mr Solar has a life-insurance policy in terms of which he is the life insured. The surrender value of the policy is R800,000 and the policy has been in force from 1 February 2018. In December 2022 a job opportunity as a sales representative, earning an average income and just sufficient for Mr Solar to support his family, becomes available to Mr Solar and the Solar family decide to relocate to Gauteng.

Ms Abel is appointed as the provisional trustee of Mr Solar's estate and the trustee's appointment is made final at the first meeting of creditors on 10 April 2023. The second meeting of creditors is held on 5 June 2023. Axit Finance fails to lodge its claim at either the first or second meeting and approaches Ms Abel on 6 September 2023 to prove its claim.

On the date of the sequestration order of Mr Solar, the principle known as concursum creditorum will apply. Explain the concept of concursum creditorum and how this will affect the creditors of the estate. In your answer refer to relevant case law. (4)

[The relevant case law in this regard is Walker v Syfret 1911 AD141. In this case, the court held that the concursum creditorum's meaning is crystallised through the sequestration of the insolvent's estate with the hand of the law. The implication of this is that the rights of the general body of creditors must take precedence. These rights rank higher than those of the insolvent. The manner in which assets are sold and the amounts flowing from such sales must be in line with the provisions of the Insolvency Act. Furthermore, no creditor may receive a full settlement of their claim to the prejudice of the general body through execution of judgment.] 4

Write a short paragraph and explain what possible remedy is available to Ms Abel to deal with the antique clock which Mr Solar delivered to Mr Hasty in full and final settlement of his claim. In your answer refer to the relevant section of the Insolvency Act that will apply and what requirements must be met. (7)

[The applicable remedy available to Ms Abel can be found under section 29 of the Insolvency Act which relates to voidable preferences. Mr Solar in delivering the antique clock satisfied those requirements intrinsic to this section in that:

1. He made a disposition to Mr Hasty, defined in section 2 of the act as inter alia; the transfer or abandonment of rights to property - this was done within six months before sequestration;
2. The resulting effect of the disposition is that it preferred one creditor over another (eg. FCM Vehicle Finance Ltd);

3. A month after this disposition, an application was brought for the sequestration of Mr Solar's estate and as such, on a preponderance of probabilities, a reasonable assumption can be made that following this disposition, Mr Solar's liabilities in fact exceeded his assets.

Additionally, Mr Hasty's possible defence of claiming such disposition was made in the ordinary course of business holds no water. The delivery of an antique clock represents a clear deviation from the tacit/implied agreement of a loan agreement, which stipulates that the repayment of such a loan will be made in cash unless otherwise stated.] 0

SEE S 30 UNDUE PREFERENCE - DATES. Section 30(1) deals with undue preferences (1) - the trustee must prove (1) - (a) that there was a disposition of property (1) - (b) that was made any time before sequestration (1) - (c) at a time when the insolvent's liabilities exceeded his assets (1) - (d) that the disposition was made with the intention of preferring one of his creditors above another (1) - (e) the trustee must also prove the subjective intention of the debtor, which can be shown that the debtor was aware of the debtor's insolvent estate or contemplated sequestration but nevertheless made the disposition (1)

Axit Finance, as the applicant creditor seeking a provisional order of sequestration against Mr Solar, must meet specific requirements outlined in section 10 of the Insolvency Act. Write a short paragraph setting out the requirements that must be met. (5)

[The requirements outlined in section 10 of the Insolvency Act and their applicability to Axit Finance as the applicant creditor are as follows:

1. There must be an established claim as prescribed in section 9 of the act, being a liquidated claim of no less than R100.00 √ (The assumption is made that this is the case given the set of facts provided and that an order was in fact granted by the KwaZulu Natal High Court Division, Durban.);√
2. The debtor must have committed an act of insolvency. √ This requirement is satisfied by the disposition made by Mr Solar, in terms of section 8(c) of the act; additionally
- 3. An advantage to creditors must be proved. √ The applicable case law in this regard is Meskin & Co v Friedman 1948 (2) SA 555 (W) where one of the ways to determine an advantage to creditors was said to be to establish whether sequestration will result in some sort of payment to the general body of creditors - of which will be satisfied through sequestration, albiet the amounts may be low.] 4 prima facie application

With regards to the inheritance that Mr Solar receives from his father after the sequestration order, explain whether the R500,000.00 inheritance will vest in the insolvent estate. In your answer refer to relevant case law. (3)

[Yes. The R500,000.00 inheritance to Mr Solar will vest in the insolvent estate. This principle was canvassed in Wessels NO v Jager 200 (4) 924 (SCA), √ where the Supreme Court of Appeal held that where the inheritance accrued prior to rehabilitation of the insolvent, it would fall into the estate but would only vest in the trustee upon adiation by the insolvent heir. √Mr Solar squarely fits the description of such an insolvent heir, having both received an inheritance two months after sequestration and subsequently accepted same on 01 May 2023.] √ 3

For the purpose of this question, assume that Mr and Mrs Solar are married in community of property and their joint estate was sequestrated. Explain whether the pension pay-out of R600,000 that Mrs Solar receives will vest in the joint insolvent estate. In your answer refer to the applicable section of the Insolvency Act that applies. (2)

[No. In terms of section 23(7) √the insolvent may for his/her benefit recover any pension to which he/she may be entitled to for services rendered. Therefore, the pension pay-out received by Mrs Solar will not vest in the joint insolvent estate.] √ 2

With reference to the motor vehicle driven by Mrs Solar, briefly explain whether ownership of the vehicle vests in the insolvent estate at the date of sequestration. Additionally, discuss whether Mr Green would have a claim against the estate in respect to the vehicle and, if so, specify the type of claim he would have. (4)

[Yes. The ownership of the vehicle vests in the estate at the date of sequestration. The applicability of section 84 is not relevant in this scenario. The credit sale agreement √entered into by Mrs Solar and Mr Green is not one governed by the National Credit Act and as such is in accordance with common law principles. √ Mr Green will not be able to reclaim the goods in terms of section 36 of the insolvency act as a substantial amount of time has passed. √ In the circumstances, Mr Green as an unsecured creditor merely has a concurrent claim in respect of the balance owed to him.] √ 4

Who must convene the first meeting of creditors and how is this meeting is convened? (2)

[The Master will convene the first meeting of creditors. √ This meeting is convened by way of notice to all registered creditors in terms of section 43 of the Insolvency Act.] 1
Government Gazette add at least 10 days before meeting.

Question 2.7

Ms Abel urgently needs to sell the movable assets of the insolvent estate, claiming that the sale cannot wait until she receives instructions from the creditors at the second meeting. What steps would Ms Abel need to take in order to sell the assets prior to the second meeting of creditors? Support your answer by referring to the necessary statutory provisions. (4)

[Ms Abel will have to make an application to the Master in terms of section 80bis √read with 18(3) to have such assets sold, which if granted will be on such terms and in such manner as the Master may direct. √ Where the asset subject to such a sale is encumbered by a preferential right, √ the holder of such right must give its permission which must accompany the initial application.] √4

Question 2.8.1

In relation to the foreign assets, indicate whether the immovable property in Italy automatically vests in the insolvent estate of Mr Solar and explain whether Ms Abel will be able to exercise control over the property. (4)

Answer:

[No. √ Section 2 of the Insolvency Act defines immovable property as being inter alia that which is registerable in any office in the Republic intended for the registration of title to land. Therefore, the property in Italy does not automatically vest in the insolvent estate. √However, Ms Abel can apply for her recognition √as trustee of Mr Solar's insolvent estate from the Italian courts in accordance with their principles and procedures in order to gain control of the property.] √4

Question 2.8.2

Would your answer to the above question be different if the property located in a foreign country is movable property? (2)

[Yes. √ Common law principles dictate automatic vesting of movable assets if an insolvent is sequestrated by the court where he is domiciled.] √2

Question 2.9

Question 2.9.1

Assuming that Mr Solar traded Sum-It-Up Accounting as a partnership, briefly explain how the partnership and the partners are treated in terms of the Insolvency Act when a provisional sequestration order is granted. (2)

[The effect of a single partner being sequestrated is such that the partnership is dissolved. In terms of section 13(2), where the insolvent partner cannot meet the cost of sequestration, the balance will be paid from the partnership estate. The individual partner's estate remain unaffected.] 1 sequestration = natural person

What effect would Mr Solar's sequestration have on the partnership? (1)

[The dissolution of the partnership.] 1

PART 3 - LIQUIDATION (40 MARKS)

QUESTION 3

Questions 3.1 - 3.10 are based on the set of facts provided below. Please answer ALL the questions.

RNH Plastics (Pty) Ltd (RNH) is a private company duly incorporated and registered under the applicable company laws of South Africa. RNH has been operating a profitable injection moulding operation for the past 13 years, manufacturing plastics chairs from a large industrial property in Willowton, Pietermaritzburg.

The Board of Directors consists of Mr Ronald, Mr Naseer and Ms Hlope. RNH occupies the industrial property under a lease agreement with The Willow Family Trust, which is set to expire in 2026.

RNH employs a significant number of staff members, including management, production, sales, maintenance, machine operators and administrative personnel. Most of RNH's employees are represented by MAWU (Moulding and Allied Workers Union), a registered trade union focusing on the interests of employees in the injection and moulding industry.

South Africa is currently facing a severe energy crisis, impacting RNH's manufacturing operations heavily. RNH relies on power to operate its large injection moulding machines, making generator usage economically unfeasible. As a result, RNH is struggling to meet customer demands and has faced contract terminations, further impacting their revenue. Cash shortfalls have hindered RNH's ability to repay creditors and suppliers, resulting in legal actions and judgments against the company, increasing the possibility of liquidation.

In December 2022, amidst the ongoing energy crisis, RNH urgently requires raw material to meet demand. They approach Rand First Bank for a loan, which is granted subject to them registering a general notarial bond over certain of the movable assets as security. The injection moulding plant is already subject to a special notarial bond. Additionally, RNH has a shipment of raw materials at the Durban harbour, but they need funds to pay customs and excise duty before it can be released.

RNH has recorded substantial losses in the 2021 and 2022 financial years, worsened by increasing repo rates and additional cash flow required for monthly repayments on vehicle and truck instalment sale agreements with SABA Bank.

Recognising the dire situation they are in, the Board decide to commence business rescue proceedings on 12 February 2023, and lodge the required documents with CIPC on 14 February 2023. The Board is not aware that an aggrieved creditor, who is owed a substantial sum of money for raw materials supplied, has already initiated a liquidation application against the company which was filed and served by the Sheriff of the High Court on an employee of the company on 11 February 2023. The employee unfortunately placed the documents in his desk drawer and failed to bring the application to the attention of management.

QUESTION 3.1

In the context of the liquidation of RNH, distinguish between commercial insolvency and factual insolvency and provide an example of each. In your answer state whether RNH is commercially or factually insolvent. (max 5)

Moreover, according to section 129(2)(a), a resolution to enter into business rescue cannot be adopted if liquidation proceedings have been initiated.]

In this case, liquidation proceedings were initiated by the aggrieved creditor on, 11 February 2023 by application, for a winding-up court order under section 81(1), deeming it just and equitable to do so: being the only grounds for winding up by court order for which a creditor may approach the court for the winding-up of a company as stated in Kruger v Set-Mak Civils (2013 (1) SA 386 (FB) (5 April 2012.)) Notably, the date of sequestration, as interpreted in Nedbank Ltd v Cooper, is considered to be when the application for winding-up was presented under section 348 of the Companies Act 61 of 1973. This interpretation further solidifies the concept that liquidation proceedings had been initiated at the time the board of directors' resolution would have taken "effect."] 3
