PART 2 - SEQUESTRATION (40 MARKS)

QUESTION 2

Questions 2.1 - 2.9 are based on the set of facts provided below. Answer ALL the questions.

Mr and Mrs Solar were married to each other out community of property in 2012. They reside in a four-bedroom property in an upmarket country estate on the beautiful east coast in Ballito, KwaZulu-Natal. The immovable property is subject to a mortgage bond in favour of ABC Bank. The marital home is fully furnished and the Solar's acquired some beautiful luxury and antique furnishings during the course of their marriage. In the latter part of 2021 Mr Solar donates a valuable and timeless Victorian sofa and server to his wife which she proudly exhibits in the home. The remaining furniture and antiques have been paid for in cash, apart from the photocopier in the home office which is subject to a lease agreement concluded with Speedy Copiers (Pty) Ltd by Mr Solar.

Mr Solar also owns a small apartment in Florence, Italy where the family enjoy spending their annual holiday.

Mr Solar drives a 2022 BMW X5 which was purchased on instalment sale agreement and financed by FCM Vehicle Finance Ltd. Mrs Solar drives a 2016 Hyundai i20 which Mr Solar purchased from Mr Green in terms of an ordinary credit sale agreement. The agreement was concluded on 5 August 2022. Mr Solar paid a deposit in the sum of R20,000 and by agreement ownership in the vehicle had passed on delivery. The balance of R80,000 is due to be paid by way of monthly instalments of R10,000 each until the balance is paid, to date, Mr Solar has paid R40,000 in terms of the agreement.

On 5 December 2022 and after being pressured by Mr Hasty, an irate creditor who loaned Mr Solar money, Mr Solar delivers one of his valuable antique clocks to him to settle his debt in full.

On 5 January 2023 an application for the sequestration of the estate of Mr Solar is filed in the KwaZulu-Natal High Court Division, Durban at the instance of Axit Finance in respect of an unpaid personal loan. Mr Solar's estate is provisionally sequestrated on 15 January 2023 and the order is made final on 20 February 2023.

On the date of sequestration Mr Solar is a director of an accounting firm, Sum-It-Up (Pty) Ltd and earns a generous salary of R120,000 per month. Mrs Solar works at the local high school as a teacher and earns R25,000 per month.

Two months after the final order of sequestration is granted, Mr Solar inherits R500,000 from his father, which inheritance he accepts on 1 May 2023. Mrs Solar decides to resign from her position at the local school and receives a pension pay out of R600,000. Mr Solar has a life-insurance policy in terms of which he is the life insured. The surrender value of the policy is R800,000 and the policy has been in force from 1 February 2018. In December 2022 a job opportunity as a sales representative, earning an average income and just sufficient for Mr Solar to support his family, becomes available to Mr Solar and the Solar family decide to relocate to Gauteng.

Ms Abel is appointed as the provisional trustee of Mr Solar's estate and the trustee's appointment is made final at the first meeting of creditors on 10 April 2023. The second meeting of creditors is held on 5 June 2023. Axit Finance fails to lodge its claim at either the first or second meeting and approaches Ms Abel on 6 September 2023 to prove its claim.

Question 2.1

On the date of the sequestration order of Mr Solar, the principle known as concursum creditorum will apply. Explain the concept of concursum creditorum and how this will affect the creditors of the estate. In your answer refer to relevant case law. (4)

[The granting of the sequestration order gives rise to the concursum creditorum, that is, the coming together of creditors. The significance of this is that the rights of all the creditors must be protected and the insolvent can no longer deal with the estate as before the sequestration order was granted. Furthermore, no one creditor can enter into transactions relating to the estate to the prejudice of other creditors. In Walker v Syfret, the court stated that upon the granting of the sequestration order the rights of the general body of creditors must be taken into consideration.] 4

Write a short paragraph and explain what possible remedy is available to Ms Abel to deal with the antique clock which Mr Solar delivered to Mr Hasty in full and final settlement of his claim. In your answer refer to the relevant section of the Insolvency Act that will apply and what requirements must be met. (7)

[The antique clock was delivered to Mr Hasty under insolvent circumstances. The trustee may apply to court to have the disposition set aside as a voidable preference in terms of section 29 of the Insolvency Act because the disposition has the effect of preferring one creditor above others. The debtor was unable to pay all his creditors but he showed preference to one creditor by paying him in full. In order to have the disposition set aside the trustee must show (a) that the disposition was made by the insolvent within 6 months before he was sequestered, (b) that the effect of the disposition was to prefer one creditor above others and (c) that immediately after making the disposition the debtor's liabilities exceeded the value of his assets.]

Section 30(1) deals with undue preferences (1) - the trustee must prove (1) - (a) that there was a disposition of property (1) - (b) that was made any time before sequestration (1) - (c) at a time when the insolvent's liabilities exceeded his assets (1) - (d) that the disposition was made with the intention of preferring one of his creditors above another (1) - (e) the trustee must also prove the subjective intention of the debtor, which can be shown that the debtor was aware of the debtor's insolvent estate or contemplated sequestration but nevertheless made the disposition (1)

Axit Finance, as the applicant creditor seeking a provisional order of sequestration against Mr Solar, must meet specific requirements outlined in section 10 of the Insolvency Act. Write a short paragraph setting out the requirements that must be met. (5)

[The applicant must adduce prima facie proof √that he has a liquidated claim of not less than R100. √He must also show that the debtor is either insolvent √or that he has committed an act of insolvency. √Lastly, the applicant must have reason to believe that the sequestration of the debtor will be to the advantage of the debtor's creditors.] √5

With regards to the inheritance that Mr Solar receives from his father after the sequestration order, explain whether the R500,000.00 inheritance will vest in the insolvent estate. In your answer refer to relevant case law. (3)

[A right of inheritance that accrues before the insolvent is rehabilitated will vest in the insolvent estate. √ Therefore the R500 000 received by Mr Solar will vest in the trustee of his insolvent estate. This was confirmed by the court in Vorster v Steyn. In this case the court held that the proceeds of the estate could not go to a trust and that the provision in a will merely directing tha a bequest shall not form part of the insolvent estate without further directions is of no effect in law. This provision is known as nudum praeceptum.] 1 see Wessels v de Jager

Question 2.4

For the purpose of this question, assume that Mr and Mrs Solar are married in community of property and their joint estate was sequestrated. Explain whether the pension pay-out of R600,000 that Mrs Solar receives will vest in the joint insolvent estate. In your answer refer to the applicable section of the Insolvency Act that applies. (2)

[The pension payout does not vest in the insolvent estate. Section 23(7) of the Insolvency Act provides that the insolvent may recover for own benefit any pension to which he may be entitled. This pension will therefore not form part of the joint insolvent estate of Mr and Mrs Solar.] 2

With reference to the motor vehicle driven by Mrs Solar, briefly explain whether ownership of the vehicle vests in the insolvent estate at the date of sequestration. Additionally, discuss whether Mr Green would have a claim against the estate in respect to the vehicle and, if so, specify the type of claim he would have. (4)

[The motor vehicle will upon the granting of the sequestration order vest in the insolvent estate. ✓ Mr Green will have a claim for the balance of the purchase price against the insolvent estate.] 1

Although the last instalment is still to be paid and by agreement ownership passed on delivery (1) - Mr Green lost ownership in the vehicle since it is a credit sale in terms of the common law (1) - in terms of a credit sale, ownership of the property passes to the purchaser on delivery and the vehicle therefore belongs to Mr Solar's insolvent estate (1) - Mr Green merely has a concurrent claim for the outstanding purchase price owing to him. (1)

Question 2.6

Who must convene the first meeting of creditors and how is this meeting is convened? (2)

[The first meeting of creditors must be convened by the Master. The meeting is convened by publishing a notice in the Government Gazette not less than 10 days before the date of the meeting.] 2

Question 2.7

Ms Abel urgently needs to sell the movable assets of the insolvent estate, claiming that the sale cannot wait until she receives instructions from the creditors at the second meeting. What steps would Ms Abel need to take in order to sell the assets prior to the second meeting of creditors? Support your answer by referring to the necessary statutory provisions. (4)

[The trustee may sell the assets before receiving instructions from the creditors at the second meeting if he is authorised to do so by the Master. ✓ This is in accordance with section 82(1) of the Insolvency Act. The said section further provides that the sale under these circumstances should be by public auction after publishing a notice to that effect in the Government Gazette.] 1

Ms Abel cannot sell the assets without the prior permission of the Master (1) - an application to sell the assets must be made to the Master in terms of section 80bis of the Insolvency Act (1) - if the property is subject to the rights of a secured creditor, permission by such creditor to sell the property must accompany the application (1) - if the Master grants permission to sell the property, he may lay down conditions in connection with the sale and determine the manner in which the sale must take place. (1)

Question 2.8.1

In relation to the foreign assets, indicate whether the immovable property in Italy automatically vests in the insolvent estate of Mr Solar and explain whether Ms Abel will be able to exercise control over the property. (4)

Answer:

[The immovable property in Italy will not automatically vest in the insolvent estate. The trustee will also not automatically gain control over this property. In order to gain control over immovable property in a foreign country the trustee must apply to the foreign court for the recognition of the appointment as trustee. When the foreign court grants recognition it may do so subject to certain conditions to protect local creditors. If recognition of the trustee is not granted, the creditors of Mr Solar may apply for his sequestration in Italy.] 4

Question 2.8.2

Would your answer to the above question be different if the property located in a foreign country is movable property? (2)

[In the case of movable property in a foreign country, the property will vest in the insolvent estate if the estate is sequestrated by the court where the insolvent is domiciled. This is in accordance with common law.] 2

Question 2.9

Question 2.9.1

Assuming that Mr Solar traded Sum-It-Up Accounting as a partnership, briefly explain how the partnership and the partners are treated in terms of the Insolvency Act when a provisional sequestration order is granted. (2)

[When a partnership is sequestrated the estates of the individual partners must also be sequestrated. Only those partners who have provided security need not be sequestrated.] 2

Question 2.9.2

What effect would Mr Solar's sequestration have on the partnership? (1)

[Mr Solar's sequestration will not have any effect on the partnership because the sequestration of a partner does not necessarily lead to the sequestration of the partnership.] 1

PART 3 - LIQUIDATION (40 MARKS)

QUESTION 3

Questions 3.1 - 3.10 are based on the set of facts provided below. Please answer ALL the questions.

RNH Plastics (Pty) Ltd (RNH) is a private company duly incorporated and registered under the applicable company laws of South Africa. RNH has been operating a profitable injection moulding operation for the past 13 years, manufacturing plastics chairs from a large industrial property in Willowton, Pietermaritzburg.

The Board of Directors consists of Mr Ronald, Mr Naseer and Ms Hlope. RNH occupies the industrial property under a lease agreement with The Willow Family Trust, which is set to expire in 2026.

RNH employs a significant number of staff members, including management, production, sales, maintenance, machine operators and administrative personnel. Most of RNH's employees are represented by MAWU (Moulding and Allied Workers Union), a registered trade union focusing on the interests of employees in the injection and moulding industry.

South Africa is currently facing a severe energy crisis, impacting RNH's manufacturing operations heavily. RNH relies on power to operate its large injection moulding machines, making generator usage economically unfeasible. As a result, RNH is struggling to meet customer demands and has faced contract terminations, further impacting their revenue. Cash shortfalls have hindered RNH's ability to repay creditors and suppliers, resulting in legal actions and judgments against the company, increasing the possibility of liquidation.

In December 2022, amidst the ongoing energy crisis, RNH urgently requires raw material to meet demand. They approach Rand First Bank for a loan, which is granted subject to them registering a general notarial bond over certain of the movable assets as security. The injection moulding plant is already subject to a special notarial bond. Additionally, RNH has a shipment of raw materials at the Durban harbour, but they need funds to pay customs and excise duty before it can be released.

RNH has recorded substantial losses in the 2021 and 2022 financial years, worsened by increasing repo rates and additional cash flow required for monthly repayments on vehicle and truck instalment sale agreements with SABA Bank.

Recognising the dire situation they are in, the Board decide to commence business rescue proceedings on 12 February 2023, and lodge the required documents with CIPC on 14 February 2023. The Board is not aware that an aggrieved creditor, who is owed a substantial sum of money for raw materials supplied, has already initiated a liquidation application against the company which was filed and served by the Sheriff of the High Court on an employee of the company on 11 February 2023. The employee unfortunately placed the documents in his desk drawer and failed to bring the application to the attention of management.

QUESTION 3.1

In the context of the liquidation of RNH, distinguish between commercial insolvency and factual insolvency and provide an example of each. In your answer state whether RNH is commercially or factually insolvent. (max 5)

[Commercial insolvency is when a company is in a state in which it is unable to pay its debts when they fall due. ✓ An example will be a company that has assets that exceed its liabilities but is struggling to convert such assets into cash and is therefore unable to pay its creditors. ✓ Factual insolvency is the situation where a company's liabilities exceed the value of its assets. ✓ In my view RNH is both commercially and factually insolvent because its liabilities exceed the value of its assets and it is also unable to pay its debts when they are due.] ✓ 5

Under whose custody and control will the assets of RNH (the company) be once the provisional liquidation order is granted? (1)

[The assets of RNH will be under the custody and control of the Master and then the liquidator once appointed.] 1

QUESTION 3.3

Briefly discuss the general effect the provisional order of liquidation of RNH will have on the employees' contracts of employment. (3)

[The employees' contracts of employment will continue to be in force until the final liquidation order is granted.]

Contracts of employment are suspended from the date of the winding-up order.
