PART 2 - SEQUESTRATION (40 MARKS)

QUESTION 2

Questions 2.1 - 2.9 are based on the set of facts provided below. Answer ALL the questions.

Mr and Mrs Solar were married to each other out community of property in 2012. They reside in a four-bedroom property in an upmarket country estate on the beautiful east coast in Ballito, KwaZulu-Natal. The immovable property is subject to a mortgage bond in favour of ABC Bank. The marital home is fully furnished and the Solar's acquired some beautiful luxury and antique furnishings during the course of their marriage. In the latter part of 2021 Mr Solar donates a valuable and timeless Victorian sofa and server to his wife which she proudly exhibits in the home. The remaining furniture and antiques have been paid for in cash, apart from the photocopier in the home office which is subject to a lease agreement concluded with Speedy Copiers (Pty) Ltd by Mr Solar.

Mr Solar also owns a small apartment in Florence, Italy where the family enjoy spending their annual holiday.

Mr Solar drives a 2022 BMW X5 which was purchased on instalment sale agreement and financed by FCM Vehicle Finance Ltd. Mrs Solar drives a 2016 Hyundai i20 which Mr Solar purchased from Mr Green in terms of an ordinary credit sale agreement. The agreement was concluded on 5 August 2022. Mr Solar paid a deposit in the sum of R20,000 and by agreement ownership in the vehicle had passed on delivery. The balance of R80,000 is due to be paid by way of monthly instalments of R10,000 each until the balance is paid, to date, Mr Solar has paid R40,000 in terms of the agreement.

On 5 December 2022 and after being pressured by Mr Hasty, an irate creditor who loaned Mr Solar money, Mr Solar delivers one of his valuable antique clocks to him to settle his debt in full.

On 5 January 2023 an application for the sequestration of the estate of Mr Solar is filed in the KwaZulu-Natal High Court Division, Durban at the instance of Axit Finance in respect of an unpaid personal loan. Mr Solar's estate is provisionally sequestrated on 15 January 2023 and the order is made final on 20 February 2023.

On the date of sequestration Mr Solar is a director of an accounting firm, Sum-It-Up (Pty) Ltd and earns a generous salary of R120,000 per month. Mrs Solar works at the local high school as a teacher and earns R25,000 per month.

Two months after the final order of sequestration is granted, Mr Solar inherits R500,000 from his father, which inheritance he accepts on 1 May 2023. Mrs Solar decides to resign from her position at the local school and receives a pension pay out of R600,000. Mr Solar has a life-insurance policy in terms of which he is the life insured. The surrender value of the policy is R800,000 and the policy has been in force from 1 February 2018. In December 2022 a job opportunity as a sales representative, earning an average income and just sufficient for Mr Solar to support his family, becomes available to Mr Solar and the Solar family decide to relocate to Gauteng.

Ms Abel is appointed as the provisional trustee of Mr Solar's estate and the trustee's appointment is made final at the first meeting of creditors on 10 April 2023. The second meeting of creditors is held on 5 June 2023. Axit Finance fails to lodge its claim at either the first or second meeting and approaches Ms Abel on 6 September 2023 to prove its claim.

Question 2.1

On the date of the sequestration order of Mr Solar, the principle known as concursum creditorum will apply. Explain the concept of concursum creditorum and how this will affect the creditors of the estate. In your answer refer to relevant case law. (4)

[The principle concursum creditorum applies once an order of sequestration is given in terms of insolvency law. It is when the body of creditors' rights are taken into consideration by means of rank when the debtors' assets are being distributed. ✓]

- In The Government v Thorne 1974, amounts owing by the estate cannot be set off against amounts due to the estate if there has been no previous breach of contract
- A creditor in a contract has a right to a defence if it is solvent based on the contract as long as the trustee or liquidator takes the contract as they have found it.
- Concursum creditorum does not prevent rectification of a contract, however Nedbank Ltd v Chance the court has stated that a creditor is not entitled to rectification of a contract after insolvency which would increase the preferent claim of the creditor.
- The winding-up of an estate is based on the creditors and their rights, where the Master oversees this process 1

In Walker v Syfret the court explained the key concept of concursum creditorum as follows: sequestration order crystallises the insolvent's position; (1) the hand of the law is laid upon the estate, and at once the rights of the general body of creditors must be taken into consideration. (1) No transaction can thereafter be entered into with regard to estate matters by a single creditor to the prejudice of the general body of creditors. (1) The claim of each creditor must be dealt with as it existed at the issue of the order. (1)

Question 2.1

Write a short paragraph and explain what possible remedy is available to Ms Abel to deal with the antique clock which Mr Solar delivered to Mr Hasty in full and final settlement of his claim. In your answer refer to the relevant section of the Insolvency Act that will apply and what requirements must be met. (7)

[Due to the fact that the furniture given to Mr Hasty is considered as antique furniture and according to section 82(6) of the Insolvency Act, antique furniture is exempt and will not be considered household furniture or wearing apparel and bedding therefore antique clock given to Mr Hasty has lowered the value of his estate. Mr Solar knew he was not liquid enough to settle Mr Hasty at the time and therefore knew he possibly would go into insolvency.] The possible remedy would be voidable preference s29 of the insolvency act. Mr Solar giving Mr Hasty the antique clock as full settlement of his debt is considered disposition of property and this was a voidable preference as Mr Hasty was pressurising him for payment. Mr Abel can claim back the Antique clock from Mr Hasty or the value of the clock as he was not a secured creditor. This transaction was done within the 6 month prior criteria therefore unknowingly preferring one creditor of the other. One month after this transaction an application for sequestration had been issued. In Hendriks N.O v Swanepoel this was not done in the ordinary course of business.

Section 30(1) deals with undue preferences (1) - the trustee must prove (1) - (a) that there was a disposition of property (1) - (b) that was made any time before sequestration (1) - (c) at a time when the insolvent's liabilities exceeded his assets (1) - (d) that the disposition was made with the intention of preferring one of his creditors above another (1) - (e) the trustee must also prove the subjective intention of the debtor, which can be shown that the debtor was aware of the debtor's insolvent estate or contemplated sequestration but nevertheless made the disposition (1)

Axit Finance, as the applicant creditor seeking a provisional order of sequestration against Mr Solar, must meet specific requirements outlined in section 10 of the Insolvency Act. Write a short paragraph setting out the requirements that must be met. (5)

[The requirements that must be met in terms of section 10 of the insolvency act prima facie would firstly be to qualify as a creditor who may bring such application - only a creditor with a liquidation claim of a minimum of R100v or where two or more creditors apply jointly and their claim is no less than R200 may bring an application of such. Secondly the debtor is factually insolventv or has committed an act of insolvency √and lastly there is no reason to believe that the sequestration would be to the advantage of the creditors.]5

With regards to the inheritance that Mr Solar receives from his father after the sequestration order, explain whether the R500,000.00 inheritance will vest in the insolvent estate. In your answer refer to relevant case law. (3)

[Yes the R500 000 inherited from his father will instantly go to the trustee of the insolvent estate as it has accrued before the rehabilitation as in Brown v Oosthuizen. In Vorster v Steyn the will stated that the son with whom the estate is bequeathed and if he is insolvent should not go to him but rather the trust until he is rehabilitated but the court held that this provision is a nudum praeceptum.]

See Wessels v de Jager

Question 2.4

For the purpose of this question, assume that Mr and Mrs Solar are married in community of property and their joint estate was sequestrated. Explain whether the pension pay-out of R600,000 that Mrs Solar receives will vest in the joint insolvent estate. In your answer refer to the applicable section of the Insolvency Act that applies. (2)

[No as section 23(7) of the insolvency act states that they may recover any pension to which they are entitled to for services rendered.] 2

Question 2.5

With reference to the motor vehicle driven by Mrs Solar, briefly explain whether ownership of the vehicle vests in the insolvent estate at the date of sequestration. Additionally, discuss whether Mr Green would have a claim against the estate in respect to the vehicle and, if so, specify the type of claim he would have. (4)

[The sale above is referred to as an ordinary credit sale agreement/ of moveable property and therefore is not an installment agreement in terms of the national credit act ,section 84 of the insolvency act will not apply. √This transaction is a normal credit sale in terms of common law, √therefor the vehicles ownership passed to mrs Solar upon delivery. Mr Green has a concurrent claim √for the outstanding R40 000.] 4

Who must convene the first meeting of creditors and how is this meeting is convened? (2)

[The master of the high Court usually convenes the first meeting and this meeting is held in a district where the insolvent resided.] Master of High Court

Question 2.7

Ms Abel urgently needs to sell the movable assets of the insolvent estate, claiming that the sale cannot wait until she receives instructions from the creditors at the second meeting. What steps would Ms Abel need to take in order to sell the assets prior to the second meeting of creditors? Support your answer by referring to the necessary statutory provisions. (4)

[Ms Abel would first need permission of the master/ in order to sell the assets prior to the second meeting if not she may not proceed, an application need to be made to the master in terms of section 80bis of the insolvency act/. If the property is subject to creditors that are secured, √permission from the creditor to sell the property would require an application. √If the master grants permission to sell the property it will be under his terms and he will set the conditions for the sale of the property and the manner in which it will take place.]√ 4

Question 2.8

Question 2.8.1

In relation to the foreign assets, indicate whether the immovable property in Italy automatically vests in the insolvent estate of Mr Solar and explain whether Ms Abel will be able to exercise control over the property. (4)

Answer:

[No,Ms Abel will not be able to gain control over the property unless and until Ms Abel obtains recognition of the appointment as trustee from the foreign court, √if Ms Abel does not get recognition the immovable property remains vested in the insolvent.]√ 2

Question 2.8.2

Would your answer to the above question be different if the property located in a foreign country is movable property? (2)

[Yes it would be different according to common law it would vest in the insolvent estate if the estate is sequestrated by the court.] 2

Question 2.9

Question 2.9.1

Assuming that Mr Solar traded Sum-It-Up Accounting as a partnership, briefly explain how the partnership and the partners are treated in terms of the Insolvency Act when a provisional sequestration order is granted. (2)

[The partnership will dissolve but the partnership estate will not get affected nor will the individual estates] 2

Question 2.9.2

What effect would Mr Solar's sequestration have on the partnership? (1)

[Partnership will dissolve and terminate] 1

PART 3 - LIQUIDATION (40 MARKS)

QUESTION 3

Questions 3.1 - 3.10 are based on the set of facts provided below. Please answer ALL the questions.

RNH Plastics (Pty) Ltd (RNH) is a private company duly incorporated and registered under the applicable company laws of South Africa. RNH has been operating a profitable injection moulding operation for the past 13 years, manufacturing plastics chairs from a large industrial property in Willowton, Pietermaritzburg.

The Board of Directors consists of Mr Ronald, Mr Naseer and Ms Hlope. RNH occupies the industrial property under a lease agreement with The Willow Family Trust, which is set to expire in 2026.

RNH employs a significant number of staff members, including management, production, sales, maintenance, machine operators and administrative personnel. Most of RNH's employees are represented by MAWU (Moulding and Allied Workers Union), a registered trade union focusing on the interests of employees in the injection and moulding industry.

South Africa is currently facing a severe energy crisis, impacting RNH's manufacturing operations heavily. RNH relies on power to operate its large injection moulding machines, making generator usage economically unfeasible. As a result, RNH is struggling to meet customer demands and has faced contract terminations, further impacting their revenue. Cash shortfalls have hindered RNH's ability to repay creditors and suppliers, resulting in legal actions and judgments against the company, increasing the possibility of liquidation.

In December 2022, amidst the ongoing energy crisis, RNH urgently requires raw material to meet demand. They approach Rand First Bank for a loan, which is granted subject to them registering a general notarial bond over certain of the movable assets as security. The injection moulding plant is already subject to a special notarial bond. Additionally, RNH has a shipment of raw materials at the Durban harbour, but they need funds to pay customs and excise duty before it can be released.

RNH has recorded substantial losses in the 2021 and 2022 financial years, worsened by increasing repo rates and additional cash flow required for monthly repayments on vehicle and truck instalment sale agreements with SABA Bank.

Recognising the dire situation they are in, the Board decide to commence business rescue proceedings on 12 February 2023, and lodge the required documents with CIPC on 14 February 2023. The Board is not aware that an aggrieved creditor, who is owed a substantial sum of money for raw materials supplied, has already initiated a liquidation application against the company which was filed and served by the Sheriff of the High Court on an employee of the company on 11 February 2023. The employee unfortunately placed the documents in his desk drawer and failed to bring the application to the attention of management.

QUESTION 3.1

In the context of the liquidation of RNH, distinguish between commercial insolvency and factual insolvency and provide an example of each. In your answer state whether RNH is commercially or factually insolvent. (max 5)

[Factual insolvency is when your liabilities are greater than your assets in comparison to commercial insolvency is when you are unable to pay your debts as they arise and you are unable to pay these debts with immediate effect. RNH is commercially insolvent given the information given to me and with this information I am unable to determine whether it is factually insolvent.] 5

QUESTION 3.2

Under whose custody and control will the assets of RNH (the company) be once the provisional liquidation order is granted? (1)

[The master of the high court] and then liquidator

QUESTION 3.3
