QUESTION 2 (direct questions) [10 marks in total] 9 marks

Question 2.1 [maximum 3 marks] 3 marks

What is the key distinction between the application of the MLCBI and the European Union (EU) Regulation on insolvency proceedings? Also describe one key benefit and disadvantage of each approach.

The main distinction between the application of the two instruments is that the MLCBI is a model law, a soft law that is not binding on any given state, but a recommendation for various jurisdictions in the handling of cross-border insolvency proceedings. The EU Regulation, on the other hand, is a binding instrument and is part of the domestic laws of the EU member states.

One key benefit of the soft law nature of the MLCBI is its flexibility, which allows states to determine the extent to which it may be incorporated into the domestic legal system. The disadvantage is that it does not achieve full harmonization and uniformity, as it leaves room for differences in the content of the laws of various jurisdictions. The approach of the EU is very rigid but it ensures high degree of predictability and certainty in the application of cross-border laws.

Question 2.2 [maximum 2 marks] 2 marks

Explain what the court should primarily consider using its discretionary power to grant post-recognition relief under Article 21 of the MLCBI.

The primary considerations in the exercise of discretionary powers under Article 21 of the MLCBI are the protection of the assets of the debtor and the protection of the interests of the creditors. Further, the court should avoid granting reliefs that would interfere with the administration of a foreign insolvency proceeding.

Question 2.3 [2 marks] 2 marks

Explain the protections granted to creditors in a foreign proceeding under Article 13 of the MLCBI.

Creditors under Article 13 are primarily protected from discrimination. In particular, foreign creditors are given the same rights as local creditors in the proceedings against the debtor. They have the right to access the local proceedings by commencing and participating in the local proceedings. Further, the rights of local unsecured creditors shall not be prioritized over those of foreign creditors merely because the latter are foreign creditors.

Question 2.4 [maximum 3 marks] 2 marks

What is a key distinction with respect to the relief available in foreign main versus foreign non-main proceedings?

The key distinction is that recognition of foreign main proceedings leads to the granting of automatic mandatory relief under Article 20 of the MLCBI unlike when such recognition is of foreign non-main proceedings.

Requires mention of relief type for FNMP based on 21 MLCBI.

QUESTION 3 (essay-type questions) [15 marks in total] 3 marks

Question 3.1 [maximum 4 marks] 2 marks

A debtor has its COMI in Germany and an establishment in Bermuda, and both foreign main and foreign non-main proceedings as well as the recognition proceedings in the US have been opened. In this scenario, explain where the foreign proceedings must have been filed, and the likely result.

The foreign main proceedings must be filed in Germany because that is where the debtor has the COMI. The proceedings filed in Bermuda, where the debtor has an establishment will be foreign non-main proceedings. The US has adopted the MLCBI and the likely result is that the foreign main and non-main proceedings as stated above would be recognized as such.

Requires references to definitional and procedural provisions of MLCBI eg. Art. 2, 15, 17, 6 MLCBI to substantiate likely outcome.

Question 3.2 [maximum 3 marks] 0 mark

Joint provisional liquidators commenced a recognition proceeding in the US and immediately were sued and served with discovery in connection with their alleged tortious interference with contract rights of the US-based vendors of the foreign debtor. Explain the likely outcome.

This scenario calls for the discharge of the court's duty to balance the interests of the creditors and other interested persons. In this case, the US court should, in considering the recognition proceedings, and taking into account the action commenced by the US-based vendors of the foreign debtor, exercise its discretion judicially under Article 22 of the MLCBI and grant reliefs upon taking into account the interests of creditors, the debtor and the vendors when considering to grant reliefs under Articles 19 and 21 of the MLCBI.

Requires discussion based on Art.10 MLCBI

Question 3.3 [maximum 4 marks] 1 mark

A foreign representative who administers assets in a debtor-in-possession-like restructuring proceeding in the UK commences a recognition proceeding in the US, setting the recognition hearing 35 days after the petition date due to the availability of the court. There is no litigation pending or threatened against the foreign debtor, but US-governed leases and intellectual property licenses have ipso facto clauses (that is, bankruptcy-triggered terminations) that are not enforceable under the US Bankruptcy Code. Based on these facts, explain what steps, if any, should the foreign representative take to protect the assets and why?

In order to protect the US assets, the foreign representative should make an application before the US court to invoke its powers under Article 19 (b) to grant relief so as to entrust the administration or realization of the debtor's assets in US (in this case, the US-governed leases and intellectual property licences) to the foreign representative in order to preserve their value and declare the non-enforceability of the ipso facto clauses.

Requires substantive discussion based upon Art.19 MLCBI (noted the mention) and its definitions, as well as references to the provisions of Art 20 and/or 21 MLCBI as applicable.

Question 3.4 [maximum 4 marks] 0 mark

A foreign representative, who administers the assets of an insolvent debtor in an insolvency proceeding pending in Country A (where the foreign debtor has its registered office and not much more), commenced a proceeding in Country B to recognise the foreign proceeding as the foreign main proceeding in order to sell certain assets within the territorial jurisdiction of Country B, but unfortunately the insolvency court considering the petition for recognition denied the recognition of the foreign proceeding as a foreign main proceeding. Explain what may or should the foreign representative do next? What should the foreign representative have done at the outset?

The foreign representative should have firstly considered where the debtor had the COMI and commenced proceedings there if he intended to apply to the court in country B for recognition of those proceedings as foreign main [the foreign representative already did... the question is what should he have done?]. Such being the case, the foreign representative can apply for recognition in country B for purposes of selling the assets in that country once such recognition is granted.

Art.16 MLCBI is the main reference for "rebuttable COMI presumption". A discussion to highlight weak COMI as well as what the representative should have done in the alternative are missing. References to Art.17, 21, 6 are also required for full marks.

QUESTION 4 (fact-based application-type question) [15 marks in total] 0 mark

Assume you received a file for a new client of the firm. The file contains the facts described below. Based on these facts, analyse key filing strategy to ensure a successful restructuring - specifically, whether to apply for recognition of main or nonmain proceeding or both (in light of COMI / establishment analysis), what papers need to be submitted, and what relief should be requested on day one of the filing.

The client is a Cayman Islands incorporated and registered entity. It is a financial service holding company for a number of direct and indirect subsidiaries that operate in the commercial automobile insurance sector in the United States. Globe Holdings was initially formed as a Canadian company in 2009, under the laws of Ontario, Canada. A year later, following certain reverse merger transactions, it filed a Certificate of Registration by Way of Continuation in the Cayman Islands to re-domesticate as a Cayman Islands company and changed its name to Globe Financial Holdings Inc. When it re-incorporated in the Cayman Islands in 2010 (from Canada), Globe Holdings provided various notices of its re-incorporation, including in the public filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Around that time, Globe Holdings retained its Cayman Islands counsel Cedar and Woods, which has regularly represented Globe Holdings for over a decade. Globe Holdings has a bank account (opened just a few days ago) in the Cayman Islands from which it pays certain of its operating expenses. Globe Holdings often holds its board meetings virtually, and not physically in the Cayman Islands, and, having obtained support for a bond restructuring, all its regular and special board meetings have been organized by its local Cayman counsel virtually. The client also maintains its books and records in the Cayman Islands. Its public filings with the SEC as well as the prospectus provided in connection with the issuance of the Notes disclosed that Globe Holdings is a Cayman Islands company and explained the related indemnification and tax consequences resulting from Globe Holdings' place of reformation.

Globe Holdings has no business operations of its own. The business is carried out through its non-insurance company non-debtor subsidiaries that are all incorporated under the US laws and operating in the US. All employees are in the US. The headquarters are also in the US.

In April 2017, Globe Holdings offered and issued USD 25,000,000 in aggregate nominal principal amount of 6.625% senior unsecured notes due in 2023 (referenced above as the Notes) governed by New York law.

In 2019, Globe Holdings recorded on its consolidated balance sheet a significant increase in liabilities. As a result, Globe Holdings worked with external professional advisors to undertake a formal strategic evaluation of its subsidiaries' businesses. In September 2020, Globe Holdings announced that it was informed its shares would be suspended from the NASDAQ Stock Market due to delinquencies in filing its 10-K. Thereafter, on November 6, 2020, its shares were delisted from the NASDAQ stock market.

An independent third party is actively marketing the sale of the corporate headquarters located in New York including the land, building, building improvements and contents including furniture and fixtures.

Despite these efforts to ease the financial stress, the culmination of incremental challenges consequently resulted in Globe Holdings being both cash flow and balance sheet insolvent.

Globe Holdings retained Cedar and Woods, its long-standing Cayman Islands counsel, to advise on restructuring alternatives. Upon consultations with Cayman counsel and its other professionals, Globe Holdings ultimately determined that the most value accretive path for the Noteholders was to commence a scheme under Cayman Islands law, followed by a chapter 15 recognition proceeding in the United States, most notably to extend the maturity of the Notes and obtain the flexibility to pay the quarterly interest "in kind".

Globe Holdings expeditiously secured the support of the majority of the Noteholders of its decision to delay interest payments and restructure the Notes through a formal proceeding. Thereafter, on August 31, 2021, about 57% of the Noteholders acceded to the Restructuring Support Agreement (RSA) governed by the New York law. The RSA memorialized the agreed-upon terms of the Note Restructuring. When Globe Holdings approached its largest Noteholders regarding the contemplated restructuring, their expectations were that any such restructuring would take place in the Cayman Islands, which is reflected in the RSA.

On July 4, 2023, the client, in accordance with the terms of the RSA, applied to the Cayman Court for permission to convene a single scheme meeting on the basis that the Noteholders, as the only Scheme Creditors, should constitute a single class of creditors for the purpose of voting on the Scheme.

On July 26, 2023 the Cayman Court entered a convening order (the Convening Order) on the papers, among other things, authorizing the client to convene a single Scheme Meeting for the purpose of considering and, through a majority vote, approving, with or without modification, the Scheme. The Scheme Meeting was held in the Cayman Islands at the offices of Cedar and Woods. Given the Covid-19 pandemic, Scheme Creditors were also afforded the convenience of observing the Scheme Meeting via Zoom and in person via a satellite location in New York. Following the Scheme Meeting, the chairman of the Scheme Meeting (presiding over the meeting in person) reported to the Cayman Court that the Scheme was overwhelmingly supported by the Noteholders, with 91.83% in number and 99.34% in value voting in favor of the Scheme. The Sanction Hearing was held, and an order sanctioning the Scheme (the Sanction Order), which was filed with the Cayman Islands Registrar of Companies the same day.

During all of this time, a class action litigation was in the US was brewing but has been filed yet.
