QUESTION 2 (direct questions) [10 marks in total] 8 marks

Question 2.1 [maximum 3 marks] 3 marks

What is the key distinction between the application of the MLCBI and the European Union (EU) Regulation on insolvency proceedings? Also describe one key benefit and disadvantage of each approach.

[The MLCBI offers a more global and universal approach to cross-border insolvency, allowing countries worldwide to adopt a common framework, while the EU Regulation on insolvency proceedings offers a harmonized approach within the EU, simplifying matters for EU member states but with limited applicability outside the EU.

The key benefits and disadvantages of each approach are tied to their respective scopes and applicability:

MLCBI:

Key Benefit: its universality and applicability beyond the EU.

Key Disadvantage: is that its adoption is not uniform across all countries.

EU:

Key Benefit: is the automatic recognition and direct applicability of insolvency proceedings across EU member states.

Key Disadvantage: limited geographic scope. It only applies within the EU, which means that it is not available to non-EU countries.]

Question 2.2 [maximum 2 marks] 2 marks

Explain what the court should primarily consider using its discretionary power to grant post-recognition relief under Article 21 of the MLCBI.

[When exercising its discretionary power under Article 21 of the MLCBI, the court should strive to achieve a balance between the interests of all parties involved, promote the efficient administration of cross-border insolvencies, and ensure that the relief is consistent with the goals of the MLCBI, which include the protection of creditor rights and the facilitation of international cooperation in insolvency matters]

Question 2.3 [2 marks] 2 marks

Explain the protections granted to creditors in a foreign proceeding under Article 13 of the MLCBI.

[Creditors have the right to have their claims recognized and treated fairly in the foreign insolvency proceeding; the MLCBI promotes non-discriminatory treatment of all creditors in the foreign proceeding; creditors should have access to relevant information about the foreign insolvency proceeding, including the financial condition of the debtor and the progress of the insolvency case; creditors should have the opportunity to object to decisions or actions taken in the foreign insolvency proceeding if they believe their rights or interests are at risk...]

Question 2.4 [maximum 3 marks] 1 mark

What is a key distinction with respect to the relief available in foreign main versus foreign non-main proceedings?

[In a foreign main proceeding, the foreign court recognizes the insolvency case as the primary proceeding and grants comprehensive relief. In a foreign non-main proceeding, the recognition is secondary, and the relief is generally more limited and focused on protecting the assets in that specific jurisdiction without interfering with the primary proceeding's decisions]

Needs substantiation with applicable MLCBI clauses (eg. Art. 20, 21), highlighting the automatic and discretionary natures of the relief.

QUESTION 3 (essay-type questions) [15 marks in total] 1 mark

Question 3.1 [maximum 4 marks] 1 mark

A debtor has its COMI in Germany and an establishment in Bermuda, and both foreign main and foreign non-main proceedings as well as the recognition proceedings in the US have been opened. In this scenario, explain where the foreign proceedings must have been filed, and the likely result.

[The likely result of this scenario is a coordinated approach to managing the debtor's assets and affairs in multiple jurisdictions. The foreign main proceeding in Germany would take precedence and serve as the primary insolvency case, while the foreign non-main proceeding in Bermuda would focus on the debtor's assets located there. The recognition proceedings in the United States would ensure that the decisions made in Germany and Bermuda are respected and enforced within U.S. jurisdiction.]

Needs reference to the applicable definitional and procedural MLCBI provisions (eg. Art.2, 15, 16, 17, 6)

Question 3.2 [maximum 3 marks] 0 mark

Joint provisional liquidators commenced a recognition proceeding in the US and immediately were sued and served with discovery in connection with their alleged tortious interference with contract rights of the US-based vendors of the foreign debtor. Explain the likely outcome.

[the outcome of such complex legal matters can be influenced by the specific facts and legal arguments presented in each case. Both the recognition proceeding and the tortious interference lawsuit would proceed independently, and the outcome of one may not automatically determine the outcome of the other. Legal counsel for the joint provisional liquidators and the vendors would play a crucial role in presenting their respective cases and addressing the legal issues involved.]

Should be answered with reference to Art.10 MLCBI

Question 3.3 [maximum 4 marks] 0 mark

A foreign representative who administers assets in a debtor-in-possession-like restructuring proceeding in the UK commences a recognition proceeding in the US, setting the recognition hearing 35 days after the petition date due to the availability of the court. There is no litigation pending or threatened against the foreign debtor, but US-governed leases and intellectual property licenses have ipso facto clauses (that is, bankruptcy-triggered terminations) that are not enforceable under the US Bankruptcy Code. Based on these facts, explain what steps, if any, should the foreign representative take to protect the assets and why?

1. File a motion for immediate stay or injunction.
2. Notification to counterparties.
3. Seek an order recognizing the foreign proceeding.
4. Prepare a proposed order for the court.
5. Engage legal counsel and experts.

Needs be discussed under light of Art.19 MLCBI, also with reference to Art 20 and 21 on relief.

Question 3.4 [maximum 4 marks] 0 mark

Explain what may or should the foreign representative do next? What should the foreign representative have done at the outset?

[To enhance the likelihood of a successful recognition and asset sale in Country B, the foreign representative should have taken the following steps at the outset:

1. Properly Assess Jurisdiction.
2. Coordinate with Legal Experts.
3. Prepare and submit a comprehensive application for recognition.
4. Maintain open lines of communication with local creditors.
5. Consider alternative solutions for the sale of assets within the jurisdiction.]

The answer should address the rebuttable COMI presumption per Art.16 MLCBI, and further discuss the situation upon Art.17, 21 and address the procedural matters per Art.15, 6 etc.

QUESTION 4 (fact-based application-type question) [15 marks in total] 0 mark

Assume you received a file for a new client of the firm. The file contains the facts described below. Based on these facts, analyse key filing strategy to ensure a successful restructuring – specifically, whether to apply for recognition of main or nonmain proceeding or both (in light of COMI / establishment analysis), what papers need to be submitted, and what relief should be requested on day one of the filing.

The client is a Cayman Islands incorporated and registered entity. It is a financial service holding company for a number of direct and indirect subsidiaries that operate in the commercial automobile insurance sector in the United States. Globe Holdings was initially formed as a Canadian company in 2009, under the laws of Ontario, Canada. A year later, following certain reverse merger transactions, it filed a Certificate of Registration by Way of Continuation in the Cayman Islands to re-domesticate as a Cayman Islands company and changed its name to Globe Financial Holdings Inc. When it re-incorporated in the Cayman Islands in 2010 (from Canada), Globe Holdings provided various notices of its re-incorporation, including in the public filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Around that time, Globe Holdings retained its Cayman Islands counsel Cedar and Woods, which has regularly represented Globe Holdings for over a decade. Globe Holdings has a bank account (opened just a few days ago) in the Cayman Islands from which it pays certain of its operating expenses. Globe Holdings often holds its board meetings virtually, and not physically in the Cayman Islands, and, having obtained support for a bond restructuring, all its regular and special board meetings have been organized by its local Cayman counsel virtually. The client also maintains its books and records in the Cayman Islands. Its public filings with the SEC as well as the prospectus provided in connection with the issuance of the Notes disclosed that Globe Holdings is a Cayman Islands company and explained the related indemnification and tax consequences resulting from Globe Holdings' place of reformation.

Globe Holdings has no business operations of its own. The business is carried out through its non-insurance company non-debtor subsidiaries that are all incorporated under the US laws and operating in the US. All employees are in the US. The headquarters are also in the US.

In April 2017, Globe Holdings offered and issued USD 25,000,000 in aggregate nominal principal amount of 6.625% senior unsecured notes due in 2023 (referenced above as the Notes) governed by New York law.

In 2019, Globe Holdings recorded on its consolidated balance sheet a significant increase in liabilities. As a result, Globe Holdings worked with external professional advisors to undertake a formal strategic evaluation of its subsidiaries' businesses. In September 2020, Globe Holdings announced that it was informed its shares would be suspended from the NASDAQ Stock Market due to delinquencies in filing its 10-K. Thereafter, on November 6, 2020, its shares were delisted from the NASDAQ stock market.

An independent third party is actively marketing the sale of the corporate headquarters located in New York including the land, building, building improvements and contents including furniture and fixtures.

Despite these efforts to ease the financial stress, the culmination of incremental challenges consequently resulted in Globe Holdings being both cash flow and balance sheet insolvent.

Globe Holdings retained Cedar and Woods, its long-standing Cayman Islands counsel, to advise on restructuring alternatives. Upon consultations with Cayman counsel and its other professionals, Globe Holdings ultimately determined that the most value accretive path for the Noteholders was to commence a scheme under Cayman Islands law, followed by a chapter 15 recognition proceeding in the United States, most notably to extend the maturity of the Notes and obtain the flexibility to pay the quarterly interest “in kind”.

Globe Holdings expeditiously secured the support of the majority of the Noteholders of its decision to delay interest payments and restructure the Notes through a formal proceeding. Thereafter, on August 31, 2021, about 57% of the Noteholders acceded to the Restructuring Support Agreement (RSA) governed by the New York law. The RSA memorialized the agreed-upon terms of the Note Restructuring. When Globe Holdings approached its largest Noteholders regarding the contemplated restructuring, their expectations were that any such restructuring would take place in the Cayman Islands, which is reflected in the RSA.

On July 4, 2023, the client, in accordance with the terms of the RSA, applied to the Cayman Court for permission to convene a single scheme meeting on the basis that the Noteholders, as the only Scheme Creditors, should constitute a single class of creditors for the purpose of voting on the Scheme.

On July 26, 2023 the Cayman Court entered a convening order (the Convening Order) on the papers, among other things, authorizing the client to convene a single Scheme Meeting for the purpose of considering and, through a majority vote, approving, with or without modification, the Scheme. The Scheme Meeting was held in the Cayman Islands at the offices of Cedar and Woods. Given the Covid-19 pandemic, Scheme Creditors were also afforded the convenience of observing the Scheme Meeting via Zoom and in person via a satellite location in New York. Following the Scheme Meeting, the chairman of the Scheme Meeting (presiding over the meeting in person) reported to the Cayman Court that the Scheme was overwhelmingly supported by the Noteholders, with 91.83% in number and 99.34% in value voting in favor of the Scheme. The Sanction Hearing was held, and an order sanctioning the Scheme (the Sanction Order), which was filed with the Cayman Islands Registrar of Companies the same day.

During all of this time, a class action litigation was in the US was brewing but has been filed yet.

[Globe Holdings is incorporated in the Cayman Islands, where it has its registered office. While its business operations are primarily in the United States, the Cayman Islands is its place of reformation and serves as its jurisdiction of incorporation. The fact that Globe Holdings has retained its Cayman Islands counsel for over a decade further supports its connection to the Cayman Islands.

To initiate the recognition proceeding in the United States, the following key papers and documents should be submitted:

- a) The foreign representative should file a petition with the U.S. court seeking recognition of the Cayman Islands scheme as a foreign main proceeding. The petition should provide a clear explanation of the client's connection to the Cayman Islands, the nature of the restructuring, and the support received from Noteholders.
- b) Provide the RSA that outlines the terms of the Note Restructuring and its governance by New York law.

On the first day of filing for recognition in the United States, the foreign representative should request the following key relief:

- a) Request the U.S. court to recognize the Cayman Islands scheme as a foreign main proceeding, emphasizing the client's connection to the Cayman Islands and the overwhelming support for the restructuring.

- b) Notify the court about the class action litigation in the United States and request coordination or communication with the court handling the potential litigation to ensure a cohesive approach to the client's situation.]

This is a fact-based application-type question, ie apply MLCBI provisions to the relevant facts of the case and provide arguments. The answer should discuss the distinction of FMP and FNMP; address definitions, to include rebuttable COMI presumption; apply MLCBI to the case; and conclude with relief options – with specific references to the applicable MLCBI articles.
